The Red Cross provides services to veterans and their families and members of the armed forces; it gives instruction in water safety, aids disaster victims and in many other ways serves when services are needed most.

The swim program which was successfully completed here this summer is one of its most attractive services.

State Of Texas To Erect Monument On Battlefield

Texas will honor its soldiers at Gettysburg with a new monument, National Park Superintendent Kittridge A. Wing announced today.

Officials from Texas, headed by George W. Hill, executive director of the Texas State Historical Survey, from Austin, are here today looking at sites for the proposed marker along the area near the intersection of the Emmitsburg Rd. with W. Confederate Ave., where Texans formed to begin the famed advance on July 2, 1863, which ended with the attack on Little Round Top.

Anthony Stasswender, Austin marble works proprietor, said his concern plans to have the monument constructed in the very near future and it is anticipated the dedicatory exercises for the new monument will take place this fall. It is expected that the base for the monument may be placed today.

MARBLE PILLAR

The inscription on the eight-foot-high marble pillar, which will be somewhat similar to markers put up by Georgia and other states recently, will state: "Texas remembers the valor and devotion of her sons who served at Gettysburg, July 2-3, 1863."

Goldwater Promises To End Draft, Keep Peace With Faith And Freedom And Halt 'Cancerous Growth Of U.S. Government'

By WALTER R. MEARS
PRESCOTT, Ariz. (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater, keynoting his campaign for the White House, promised today to end the draft, keep the peace and halt "the cancerous growth of the federal government."

"I do not intend to be a wartime president," the Republican presidential nominee declared. And Goldwater said he would keep the peace without the draft.

"Republicans will end the draft altogether, and as soon as possible," he said. "That I promise you."

Goldwater accused President Johnson of using the Selective Service System "for political and social schemes."

Returning to the ancestral home where he launched his two campaigns for the Senate, Goldwater said in a prepared speech: "The campaign we launch today is dedicated to peace through preparedness, progress through freedom, purpose through constitutional order."

Prescott authorities forecast a crowd of more than 35,000 — more than double the population of this one-time territorial capital in Arizona's hill country, 100 miles from Phoenix.

TRUCKS CAUSE HEAVY DAMAGE AT NEW OXFORD

Heavily loaded trucks and tractor-trailers were blamed Wednesday night by the New Oxford Area School Board for damage estimated at $10,000 to a private road around the high school building.

The half-mile stretch of paved road is on school property and was used by the public as a short cut to New Chester, despite barricades, during a five-week period when the state highway department was reconstructing Carlisle St. in the borough.

Supervising Principal Charles W. Hash told the school directors at the regular meeting in the high school building that he had attempted to stop several trucks from using the road and was met with "abusive" language and threats that "the taxpayers had built the road and the public could not be kept from using it." He said that when barricades were erected, traffic drove over the lawn at the rear and side of the high school building to avoid hitting them. A number of directors said they had received telephone calls from local persons demanding that the barricades be removed to permit public use of the road.

DETOUR TRAFFIC

Hash said that loaded feed trucks, lumber trucks and other heavily loaded tractor-trailers used the road during the detour, breaking through the macadam surface and rutting the base so badly that the entire road will require rebuilding. One rut, the width of a double wheel, runs the entire half-mile length of the middle of the road.

In other business, the board elected two elementary teachers and a high school teacher, each at a salary of $4,500. Mrs. Susan J. Tyler, Littlestown R. 1, a 1963 graduate of West Chester State College, and Mrs. Anne C. Silar, Gettysburg, a 1964 graduate of University of Richmond, were elected to the elementary staff. Charles B. Wallace III, East Berlin, a 1964 graduate of Pennsylvania State University, will teach science and mathematics in the high school. Hash reported that all faculty positions now are filled.

The board renewed a bus contract for Eugene C. Griest at $1.84 a day for a 49-mile daily run, and approved an insurance program for students at $2 a pupil through Sixth Grade and $2.25 through high school age. The individual insurance is optional for pupils and can be purchased with year-round coverage.

SCHOOLS OPEN AT BERMUDIAN NEXT TUESDAY

Preparations for the opening of the public schools of the Bermudian Springs Joint School District next Tuesday morning moved forward today with teachers' meetings and workshops and a noon luncheon at the high school cafeteria when school officials spoke.

On Wednesday Principal Meyers met with the 13 new teachers in the system for a general orientation session from 10 a.m. until noon.

High School Principal Alfred Billett spoke to the high school group about school opening procedures, rules and regulations and the two elementary principals, Charles Phillips and Bruce Weiser, were in charge of the grade school teachers.

JAP SOLDIERS STILL HIDING IN GUAM AREA

AGANA, Guam (AP) — At least 20 Japanese soldiers from World War II are still hiding out in the jungle 20 years after Guam's recapture by American forces, Guam police and U.S. military officials said today.

A construction worker reported last week that one of them held a rifle on him and pulled the trigger, but nothing happened.

Guam Police Capt. Jose C. Quintanilla said he believed the two holdouts, bearded and be-draggled, are holed up somewhere in the northeastern Guam jungle, in the same area where the Japanese imperial army made its last stand during World War II.

SIGHT 2 STRAGGLERS

Equipment operator Jose George, 27, reported on Aug. 26 that he sighted the two stragglers a half-mile from the U.S. naval communication station housing.

George said he first spotted one of them squatting inside a dump. The man, George said, had long hair, a beard nearly to his waist, and was skinny and nearly naked.

George said the man ran away, limping on one foot. He said he went after the man but when he got within 15 feet he saw another Japanese who leveled a rifle at him.

George said the Japanese pulled the trigger but the weapon did not fire. The man, George said, pulled the rifle bolt, reloaded and pulled the trigger again, but again it mis-fired.

At that point, the worker said, he ran back to his truck and drove off to tell U.S. Marine sentries. The Marines searched the area to no avail.

TOP OFFICIALS SEARCHING FOR CYPRUS PEACE

By ARTHUR L. GAVSHON LONDON (AP) — Senior U.S. and British officials today began searching for a new Cyprus peace settlement in a mood of anger over a snub from President Makarios' government.

Foreign Secretary R.A. Butler met with former Secretary of State Dean Acheson and other officials to study the next steps after the collapse of a United Nations sponsored mediation designed to reconcile the island's feuding Greek and Turkish Cypriot communities.

Both the American and British officials were portrayed as being incensed over a hostile statement issued Wednesday night in Nicosia. The statement repeated an allegation first made in Cairo by Makarios that the Americans and British were behind the recent Turkish air attacks on Greek Cypriots in northwest Cyprus.

REPEAT CHARGES

The Cypriot government repeated its charge that the raids were staged "with the tolerance of the governments of Britain and the United States."

This Greek Cypriot move amounted to a rejection of stiff American and British protests which earlier had been handed to Makarios and his Cabinet. Both the United States and Britain had called for a retraction of the charge which they termed false.

Acheson and Lord Hood, a Foreign Office undersecretary, have been attending the Geneva mediation talks which last week ended in deadlock. Greece and the Greek Cypriot government turned down a set of proposals by Acheson which would have united Cyprus with Greece and provided for territorial and other compensation to the Turks and the Turkish Cypriots.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Three Negro girls entered previously all-white Jones Valley High School without incident today.

Students registering for the new term had been entering the building steadily for 45 minutes before the Negroes arrived.

Girl Laments Loss Of Beatles' Ticket

MEDIA, Pa. (AP)—To a 14-year-old girl, attending a Beatles' performance can be the biggest thrill on earth. Jacque Lee was all set to worship at the shrine of Beatlemania Wednesday night at Philadelphia's Convention Hall when, alas, her ticket disappeared.

"I was very disappointed because I don't think I'll ever see them again," she lamented.

The sophomore at Penncrest High School said she probably left the ticket in Maine, where she had been vacationing the previous week.

"I called convention hall to tell them," she said. But all they would say was, "Yeah, yeah, yeah, tell us another."

BEARDS AND TURMOIL GONE FROM HEARING

By STANLEY MEISLER

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Committee on Un-American Activities opened new hearings on student travelers to Cuba today with decorum the immediate rule. One usually-bearded witness even showed up without his beard.

In contrast to last year's boisterous, raucous sessions, quiet order seemed the hallmark they had set.

The committee had sought to insure order with some of the strictest security arrangements ever used at the Capitol. There were more police and U.S. marshals on the scene than students and sympathizers.

SPRINKLING OF MARSHALS Before allowing the students and their sympathizers into the room, the committee filled half the seats with staff members and friends of committeemen. Then it sprinkled U.S. marshals throughout the other half.

The first witness, George Lue, a New York travel agent, testified that Yvonne Bond, accompanied by a bearded young man, had come to his offices in May to make arrangements for a group of 28 to travel to Paris.

Asked if the young man with the beard was in the room, Lue said, "Yes, but he doesn't have his beard," and he pointed to clean-shaven Morton Slater. Both Miss Bond and Slater had been subpoenaed to testify before the committee.

The students are believed to have traveled to Paris before making their trip to Cuba. They reached Cuba June 12 and stayed there until Aug. 12.

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Bob-baker, vacationing in Southern California, says he may move to Los Angeles to practice law.

The controversial former secretary to the Senate's Democratic majority declined any comment Wednesday in the latest allegation leveled against him by Sen. John J. Williams, R-Del. The senator has charged that an illegal contribution to the Democratic campaign in 1960 was made by Matthew H. McCloskey Jr., the builder of a Washington, D.C., sports stadium, and that the money was funneled through Baker.

NEW YORK (AP) — Malcolm X, the militant Negro leader who quit the Black Muslims earlier this year, was ordered by a judge Wednesday to vacate his six-room, $16,200 home in the New York City borough of Queens.

Civil Court Judge Maurice Wahl ruled that Malcolm X, whose real name is Malcolm Little — lost his right to the home when he left the Muslims to form his own cult. The judge decided the property clearly belonged to the Muslims' Temple of Islam, Inc., which had bought it for Malcolm as a residence or parsonage. Malcolm's attorney said the decision would be appealed.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Warren Eckstein is only 4, but he can stand up to President Johnson quite well.

Johnson noticed the little boy standing beside his father, Otto Eckstein, at a ceremony in which Eckstein was sworn in as a member of the Council of Economic Advisers Wednesday. The President admired the boy's new blue and gray striped blazer coat.

"That's a pretty fancy coat you have there," the President said. "How about lending it to me?"

Warren paused briefly, then replied: "No."

After the ceremony, Johnson paused by Warren and said: "Now you consider that, and if you decide you'll lend me the coat, you get in touch with me."

POLICE PATROL AREA OF RIOT

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The four-square mile North Philadelphia area torn by Negro looting and pillaging last weekend continued to be quiet today, but 1,128 policemen remained on patrol to enforce a proclamation forbidding congregating on the streets.

Mayor James H. J. Tate said "The lid will be kept on until after Labor Day."

Tate made the statement Wednesday as FBI agents and local police continued their investigation of the cause and background of the sudden outbreak in the Negro section.

There were reports that an alleged ringleader had been taken into custody and was under questioning, but officials would not confirm the arrest. Police Commissioner Howard R. Leary discounted the report.

Leary also announced that the total of arrests made since the rioting began last Friday night was 768 and injuries totaled 308, of which 91 were policemen.

ASK COURT TO KILL APPEAL

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The city solicitor, acting on behalf of the Philadelphia County Board of Elections, has asked the U.S. Supreme Court to throw out—without any consideration—an appeal by Justice Michael A. Musmanno asking that votes cast on wrong lines on machines in the Democratic senatorial primary last April be counted.

The petition, mailed to the nation's highest tribunal Wednesday, said the court had nothing to review, that the matter was entirely up to Pennsylvania courts and they had turned Musmanno down.

Musmanno opposed Genevieve Blatt, state secretary of internal affairs, for the nomination. If the wrong line votes, numbering nearly 6,000 are counted, Musmanno will get the nomination by some 600 votes.

If they are not counted, as decreed by the state Supreme Court, Miss Blatt is the victor by 491 votes.

SEND INDIA MORE WHEAT

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — The United States is stepping up its shipments of wheat to this hungry nation as heavy monsoon rains multiply the misery by flooding vast areas of valuable cropland.

Indian officials announced Wednesday 80 U.S. ships are being used to rush shipments of surplus American wheat.

They are to bring four million tons between now and February—twice the amount that had been scheduled.

Food shortages have touched off demonstrations throughout India and have resulted in the arrest of thousands of Communist agitators. Police said they have arrested more than 8,400 Communists in the Red stronghold of Kerala State. Most were released after being held for several hours, the police said.

Heavy monsoon rains have hit northern India causing the worst floods in decades.

Authorities estimate that five million acres of vital crops are now under water. About 500,000 persons have been flooded from their homes.

18 DISTRICTS BARRED FROM COURT ACTION ON SCHOOL LAW

HARRISBURG (AP) — Eighteen school districts from five Pennsylvania counties have been restrained from joining in a court test of the constitutionality of the 1963 School Reorganization Act.

The 18 districts had asked Commonwealth Court for permission to intervene on the side of four other school districts in challenging the legality of the act.

The court Wednesday turned down the petition, giving no reason for its decision. Further action in the original suit is likely to come later this month when preliminary actions filed by the Commonwealth are argued.

STARTED IN MAY

The original suit was filed May 6 by Upper Merion Twp. and Bridgeport and Bryn Athyn Boroughs, Montgomery County, and West Pittston Borough, Luzerne County.

The unsuccessful effort to intervene on the side of the plaintiffs was made by nine school districts in Luzerne County, five in Delaware, two in Allegheny and one each in Montgomery and Bucks.

The Luzerne districts were Dennon, Dorrance, Fairview, Denn, Slocum and Wright Twp. and the boroughs of Nuangola, West Hazleton and White Haven. All are fourth class districts and members of the Central Luzerne County Joint School System, except West Hazleton which is third class and part of the West Hazleton Jointure.

BASIS OF SUIT

The other districts attempting to intervene were Newtown Twp. and the boroughs of Collingdale, Marcus Hook, Millbourne and Sharon Hill in Delaware County; Neville Twp., and Bellevue Borough, Allegheny County; East Norriton Twp., Montgomery County, and Upper Makefield Twp.

The Reorganization Act set July 1, 1966, as the deadline by which the state's 2,056 school districts must be consolidated into 500 administrative units.

Basically, the suit contends that enforcement of the law will increase school taxes substantially and districts will be deprived of the opportunity of providing their own comprehensive programs of education.

OPPOSING VIEWS

The act is illegal, it is charged, because it regulates the affairs of the individual school districts. The complaint demands that the court restrain the state from disbursing funds under provisions of the act.

In its preliminary objections, the state asks that the suit be dismissed on the grounds that Commonwealth Court has no jurisdiction in cases where the constitutionality of a statute is questioned.

GOP LEADERS CONFER TODAY

HARRISBURG (AP) — Republican leaders from five states and the District of Columbia meet in Harrisburg today to map organization plans for the coming presidential election.

With GOP State Chairman Craig Truax playing host, his counterparts and their top aides from New York, Delaware, Maryland, New Jersey and the District of Columbia were scheduled to be in attendance.

Representatives of the GOP National Committee, including newly appointed executive director John Grenier, also were listed among the participants.

Gov. Scranton had no specific part in the program, but he planned to make a brief appearance at the workshop session.

Scranton staged a heated 11th hour campaign to wrest the nomination from the eventual standard bearer, Arizona Sen. Barry Goldwater, but afterwards avowed his support for the senator.

Today's meeting was the second in a series of regional organization workshops being planned by the GOP across the country. The first was held in Sacramento, Calif., last Aug. 26.

POLICE KNOW PHILLY RIOT INSTIGATORS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—The key instigators of the North Philadelphia riots are known to police, says Philadelphia Mayor James H. J. Tate.

Tate made the statement as the Negro section of the city, torn by rioting and pillaging last weekend, gradually took on the appearance of normal living.

However, more than 1,000 policemen continued to patrol the area, where a curfew still is in effect and all taprooms and movies in the four-square-mile section have been closed.

Police late Tuesday night described the riot area as "abnormally quiet."

PROGRESS REPORT

In a progress report of the investigation of the causes and background of the sudden outbreak, which began last Friday night, Mayor Tate said:

"At this time, we have been able to piece together a comprehensive picture of the sequence of events which took place immediately after the outbreak of rioting last Friday. Police investigators have narrowed down the identity of the principal instigators of this outbreak to a small number . . .

"The police department has unquestionable information about the methods used by these persons to incite the initial disorder and in spreading it throughout the area."

The mayor declined to be more specific.

NO COMMUNIST BACKGROUND

Earlier, however, he did say the FBI is convinced that there was no Communist background to the rioting in the area, which is inhabited by one-third of the city's 600,000 Negroes.

Tate said he believes the part played by the Black Muslims and other Negro nationalist elements was "very minor."

Arrested Monday was Shaykh Muhammad, 34, described as a former Black Muslim. Muhammad was freed Tuesday on $10,000 bail on a misdemeanor charge of having more than 25 gallons of certain kinds of volatile liquid on his property in violation of the fire code. A charge of carrying bombs and other explosives was dropped.

621 ARRESTS

Police Commissioner Howard R. Leary said arrests totaled 621, including 438 in the riot area and the rest on the fringes. Most of the arrests were for burglary.

Looting and riot damage was estimated in the millions.

The mayor said the city intends to reimburse all merchants for riot losses. The Small Business Administration, banks and insurance companies will also aid.

Tate said thousands of dollars of stolen merchandise have been recovered and arrests made on the basis of information provided by residents of the North Philadelphia community.

Name Heads Of Pa. Citizens' Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Citizens Committee for Goldwater-Miller has announced that Bennett S. Chapple Jr., Pittsburgh, and Robert C. Landon, Philadelphia, will head the organization's activities in Pennsylvania.

Chapple will head activities in the western part of the state and Landon in the eastern half.

Also announced Wednesday was the appointment of John G. Pew, Wayne, as Landon's co-chairman, and Frederick B. Hufnagel Jr., Philadelphia, as Eastern Pennsylvania finance chairman.

Chapple is a vice president of U.S. Steel and Landon is an executive of a Philadelphia chemical firm. Pew and Hufnagel are with Sun Shipbuilding and Drydock Co.

It is hoped that a safe northern water route will help the Canadian North, whose mineral resources have scarcely been tapped.

STORMY DORA IS SWITCHING HER COURSE

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — Hurricane Dora took a turn away from the northern Leeward Islands early today and the Weather Bureau said it no longer endangered any Caribbean land areas.

The big, blustery storm decreased its forward speed to about 15 miles per hour from an earlier 20 miles but still packed winds up to 115 miles per hour near the center.

A hurricane watch was discontinued for Puerto Rico and the Virgin Islands and the northern Leeward Islands and gale warnings were discontinued in the northern Leewards.

COURSE UNCERTAIN

The hurricane was moving toward the west-northwest and the Weather Bureau said "there is evidence of recurvature to a more northerly direction."

At dawn hurricane Dora was about 460 miles east-northeast of San Juan and 275 miles in the same direction from St. Maarten, Lesser Antilles.

It was almost 1,500 miles east-southeast of Miami.

Hurricane-force winds extend 80 miles north of the center and 40 miles to the south, with gales reaching out 20 miles to the north and 100 miles to the south.

"Indications are that Dora will increase slightly in size and intensity during the next 12 hours," the Weather Bureau said.

Hurricane Dora was expected to move on a course between west-northwest and northwest, which would take it away from any land areas.

"There is no longer any danger to Caribbean land areas from hurricane Dora except that heavy surf may be expected in the Leeward Islands and people near exposed beach areas should continue to exercise caution," the Weather Bureau said.

14 SEA SCOUTS ARE RESCUED

NEW CASTLE, Del. (AP)—A group of 14 Philadelphia area sea scouts was rescued an hour past midnight after their boat ran aground on a jetty in the Delaware River off Pea Patch Island.

The boys and Archibald Beaman, 59, Philadelphia, skipper of the 36-foot craft were stranded for several hours before volunteer firemen from New Castle and other nearby Delaware communities brought them to shore.

The boat slipped off the jetty and sank after the rescue. The scouts were cruising to Annapolis, Md., and had started out last Saturday from their base at Croydon, Pa., outside Philadelphia.

The boat, a former Navy air and sea rescue vessel, developed engine trouble Tuesday and put into the Philadelphia Naval Base for repairs. It started out again Wednesday.

The jetty was covered with water because of high tide when the boat struck and ran aground. Two boys rowed ashore in a dinghy to summon help.

Flies To See Dying Dad; Quarantined

SYDNEY, Australia (AP) — An Australian woman who flew here from Atlanta, Ga., to see her critically ill father has been placed in quarantine for two weeks.

Authorities said the smallpox vaccination certificate of Kathleen Milton, 26, has expired and therefore she cannot be allowed to enter Australia immediately. She said she could not have a new vaccination now because she is expecting a baby.

Her husband, Dr. Rod Milton, is an Australian studying and working at the Georgian Clinic in Atlanta.

Mrs. Milton said her father, George Herriman, 74, is gravely ill with cancer in Brisbane.

Belgian Family Of 13 Start New Life

MONTREAL, Que. (AP) — Jules Van Gool, an auto mechanic from Belgium, arrived here Wednesday to begin a new life. He brought with him his wife and 11 children, ranging in age from 3 to 23.

There was some difficulty in finding accommodations immediately, but Van Gool said all he needed was one empty room so that "we can get our sleeping bags out and cook with our equipment."

The Immigration Department announced later that it had found suitable lodgings. Van Gool plans to settle in Saskatoon. The family came from Antwerp.

Cool Nights Slow Peach Harvesting

Unseasonably cool nights this week have slowed the peach harvest considerably in Adams County, where the annual harvest has passed the half-way mark.

Until last weekend, many growers were fearful that losses would be heavy because of the hot weather and the rapid maturing of fruit and it appeared that the Elberta harvest would be completed at least two weeks ahead of schedule. However, the change in weather conditions has delayed the ripening process and few ripe peaches are being offered today by local growers.

The Elberta harvest has reached its peak and growers predict that two-thirds of the crop will be off the trees by the end of the week. Adams County is the state's leading producer of peaches, with Franklin County placing second.

245 Delinquent Boys Hike, Fish, Learn Friendship At 900-Acre N.Y. Protectory

LINCOLNDALE, N.Y. (AP)

— With dogs as companions, 245 delinquent boys hike and fish and learn friendship, love and loyalty while turning to a new life at a 900-acre Roman Catholic protectory.

The boys are between 11 and 15 years old. Many come from broken homes. Up to now their life included robbery, stealing cars, assault and picking pockets.

When they enter Lincoln Hall in a rural setting of this Westchester County community not far from the crowded streets of New York, the boys are rebellious, suspicious and bewildered.

TO "NEW LIFE"

"The dogs are a bridge to a new life," explained Brother Christian, director of the 101-year-old institution operated by the Brothers of the Christian Schools.

The 36 dogs of all sizes and breeds are used to help the wayward boys relax and gain confidence.

"Wherever the kids go the dogs go — except in the dining room," said Brother Amator Michael. "We try to keep the dogs out of the classrooms but don't always succeed."

"One problem is that some of the kids won't eat meat sometimes, so that they can take it to the pets."

LEARNS OF LOVE

One of the youngsters is Tony, 14, whose parents are on relief in the Bronx. He was committed to Lincoln Hall in 1961 for assault and larceny. He was released but returned in 1963 for picking pockets and shoplifting.

Tony, a 98-pounder, says he has learned about friendship, self-respect, loyalty and love from Tiny Bear, a 134-pound Newfoundland, who sleeps beside him in a 24-bed cottage.

Tony vows he won't get into trouble again.

Most of the dogs were donated by estate and kennel owners, and boys may take home special pets when they leave Lincoln Hall. There also are horses, rabbits, cats and a monkey on the grounds.

But it's dogs who are the best loved.

20 YEARS AGO

The U. S. Third Army sweep through and beyond the French city of Verdun in a landslide offensive which, continued at its present pace, promised to carry over into an invasion of Germany's frontiers before nightfall. Behind the channel rocket coast field Marshal Sir Bernard L. Montgomery's tank forces, which had burst forward 80 miles in three days, poured toward Belgium's Flanders.

Red Army flying columns, skirting the southern shoulder of the Transylvania Alps after marching triumphantly through Bucharest, headed in the direction of Serbia's northeastern mountains, where Marshal Tito's Partisans are battling the common enemy. A junction between Soviet and Yugoslav forces became a possibility of the near future as Gen. Rodian Y. Malinovsky's armored scouts approached within 120 miles of the Yugoslav-Rumanian frontier.

Sharp attacks by American tanks and infantry crumbled Nazi rearguard resistance in the upper Rhine Valley of southern France and the Germans fled northwest at top speed with the pursuing Allies less than 50 miles from the great city of Lyon.

The first 1,900 military ballots to Adams County men and women in military service were mailed today; the remaining 600 ballots will be mailed tomorrow, according to Clarence Smith, chief clerk to the county commissioners.

Mrs. Monroe Wentz, 23-year-old Mt. Joy Twp. mother, has fully recovered from an attack of infantile paralysis and the quarantine has been lifted from the Wentz home.

One of the hottest Augusts on record here saw the mercury in the 90's and higher on 15 days in the first three weeks of the month and temperatures of 100 and 101 degrees were recorded on August 11 and 12, respectively. The hot weather was accompanied by an extension of the drought that became acute earlier in the summer. Rainfall measured only 1.21 inches during the month, less than a third of normal, and creating a total shortage of 2.86 inches.

Volunteer special service workers put in a total of 3,842 hours of service in July, Mrs. Earl Bowen, chairman of special services, reported.

Nine men, the smallest general call since June and probably the second smallest in several years, were sent to the Armed Forces Induction station at Harrisburg in the September call of the Gettysburg Draft Board. One volunteer was in-

Today's TalkTHERE'S ALWAYS A WAY OUT

We are beset with problems. Business success is a problem. Health is a problem. Education is a problem. Maintaining world peace is a problem. Life itself is a problem. But there is always a way into each, and a way out. It just takes thinking, planning and a rare order of courage to face each and all, and order out a winning solution.

But all of these problems that face us, from the beginning to the end of life, are apportioned to all of us to solve in our own way. We can't depend upon others to solve them for us. They have their own problems to solve. As an individual we must stand or fall. We can cooperate with others. We can learn by the example of others — by viewing their successes and their mistakes, as well, but we must plough ahead alone, mostly in the manner of the old time farm or behind his plough.

Our own mistakes teach us more than to have someone else point them out to us. Finding our own way out of a difficult situation, gives us both ambition and ammunition to fight a better battle later on.

The best business of life is to keep moving, going ahead, even though we may not see clearly at once, for the fog that blinds our eyes. The fog always clears in time. So do the difficulties that mess up a problem. The task is to keep hunting out some hole from which the light can shine through. The Wright Brothers discovered it when they saw their crude plane stay in the air for a brief period. Now the jet plant speeds round the world!

Many a man has lost all his life's earnings, only to think out a new way into greater triumphs.

"Direct your eye inward, and you'll find
A thousand regions in your mind
Yet undiscovered. Travel them, and be
Expert in home-cosmography."
We have all the solutions within ourselves. But it takes some deep diving with our eyes wide open to get a real eye view of the knowledge that will enable us to detect our way out of any problem or situation. And the most hopeful self-discovery is that it can be found!

Just Folks

"SMART" AND "CLEVER"
Words like "smart" and "clever"
do

Often far more harm than good.
They are words of brilliant hue,
But they're oft misunderstood.
Many a young man, blithe of heart,
Has gone blindly to his fall
Just by thinking to be smart
Is a triumph over all.

Men by being clever try
Fate and folly to outwit.
They should slip the dangers by
Strong men face by keeping fit.
They would play an easier part
Than the men who plod along.
Falsely thinking being smart
Better is than being strong.

These are kinder words by far:
"Patient," "diligent" and "true."
Fine though "smart" and "clever"
are,

These will serve a lifetime through.
Brilliance has a dazzling style,
But its charms are for the few.
And along life's tedious mile
Diligence will see you through.

EMERGENCY DECREE FOR MALAYSIANS

By TONY ESCODA

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (AP) — Prime Minister Tunku Abdul Rahman said today his government has decided to impose a state of emergency throughout Malaysia because of indications that Indonesia is preparing to "mount a big offensive" against this country.

Rahman presided at an emergency Cabinet session after high-level talks with British Commonwealth allies who pledged to increase military and economic aid following an airborne landing in Malaya Wednesday by about 30 heavily armed Indonesian paratroopers.

Security forces today killed two more Indonesian paratroopers, the Defense Ministry announced.

It brought to four the number of Indonesians killed since an airborne attack in the Labis area, 105 miles southeast of this capital of Malaysia.

The ministry said one member of the security forces was killed and another wounded, the first Malaysian casualties.

ACCUSE REDS
The government accused "Communist or Indonesian provocateurs" of trying to incite fresh race rioting between Chinese and Malays in Singapore to divert attention from the airborne strike.

Rahman told a news conference the state of emergency to go into effect Friday is designed to help the government deal with Malaysians acting as Indonesian agents.

Under the emergency, persons found in illegal possessions of arms and explosives would face the death sentence. Rahman also announced his government has asked the U.N. Security Council to take up what Malaysia has labeled "naked aggression" by Indonesia.

ICC Says Federal Rules
Broken In June 26 Blast

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Interstate Commerce Commission says the American Cyanamid Co. and one of its truck drivers violated government regulations in the June 26 explosion of a trailer carrying dynamite near Marshalls Creek, Pa.

Six persons were killed and 13 injured when the trailer, laden with nitro-carbo-nitrate and dynamite, exploded after its rear tires caught fire. At the time of the blast, the trailer was parked along U.S. Route 209.

The Interstate Commerce Commission's bureau of inquiry and compliance Wednesday recommended to an ICC commissioner and examiner investigating the accident, that the company and the driver, Albert J. Koda, 51, of Port Carbon, Pa., be cited for violating regulations for the transporting of explosives.

UNATTENDED, SIGN GONE
Koda was accused of removing "explosives" signs from the trailer, which was parked beside the road because of flat tires, and leaving the vehicle unattended.

Koda told the investigators that when he discovered two flat tires on the trailer, he left it to get help and phone his supervisors the shipment would be delayed.

The bureau said that the required "explosives" signs were not on the unattended vehicle.

SIGN BLEW OFF
Koda claimed that the signs had blown off. The bureau responded that "any such claim that all the signs fell off at practically the same time, stretches the limits of credibility beyond the pale of human imagination. It must be concluded that Koda removed the signs prior to leaving the scene of the accident."

The bureau recommended also that Koda be cited for violating a regulation that no vehicle carrying explosives shall be left unattended.

The bureau added that American Cyanamid was remiss in that "little, if anything, was done by American Cyanamid to assure that the drivers were specifically instructed" on government regulations for transporting explosives.

NEED TIGHTER RULES
"It would seem in view of the driver's long experience that he must have been well aware of the risks involved in connection with the possibility of a tire fire," the bureau said.

"Despite his awareness . . . Koda deliberately removed the explosives signs from the trailer and indeed failed to post any warning signs whatsoever near the trailer prior to abandoning it," the bureau added.

The bureau recommended that the ICC tighten its rules on transporting explosives.

Four Top Teams In NL Win; Cincinnati Beats Chicago 1-0 In Twelfth

By MURRAY CHASS
Associated Press Sports Writer

Fortunately for Cincinnati, Mel Queen doesn't quite follow in his father's footsteps.

Queen, a rookie lashed a single that drove in the only run of the game in the Reds' 1-0 victory over Chicago in 12 innings Wednesday night. The triumph kept the second-place Reds 5½ games behind Philadelphia in the National League pennant race.

The 21-year-old right fielder is the son of Mel Queen, a pitcher who compiled a 27-40 lifetime record with the New York Yankees and the Pittsburgh Pirates in the 1940s and early 1950s.

MOSTLY PINCH HITTER
Luckily for the elder Queen, he was a pitcher. He certainly couldn't have reached the majors on his hitting. In eight seasons, he somehow managed to get 17 hits in 164 times at bat for a .104 average. He also batted in four runs in his career.

Young Queen went 2-for-6 Wednesday, raising his average to .218 and his RBI total to 11. He has compiled the record mostly as a pinch hitter. Only recently has he been playing somewhat regularly.

BRAVES LOSE
In other NL games, Philadelphia edged Houston 2-1, San Francisco blanked New York 4-0, St. Louis defeated Milwaukee 6-2 and Los Angeles downed Pittsburgh 8-5 in 12 innings.

Queen's single in the 12th inning followed singles by pinch hitter Marty Keough and Chico Ruiz. It gave Jim O'Toole, who pitched a seven-hitter, his 14th victory in 20 decisions. Bob Buhl allowed the Reds five hits in the first eight innings.

Chris Short hurled a four-hitter, posting his 15th triumph against seven losses for the Phillies, who won the game in the fourth inning. Wes Covington and Clay Dalrymple singled, were sacrificed to second and third and scored on Tony Taylor's single to center field.

SHUTOUT FOR MARICHAL
The Colts scored in the sixth when Eddie Kasko walked, went to second on Mike White's single and came around on a single by Bob Aspromonte.

Juan Marichal made only his second start since July 29 and stopped the Mets on four hits. Marichal, now 16-6, had been bothered by a back ailment. Tom Haller slammed a homer in the fourth inning while Hal Lanier singled across two runs in the ninth.

The Cardinals won their eighth game in the last nine behind Bob Gibson's seven-hitter. Gibson, 13-10, was backed by Ken Boyer and Curt Flood, who each knocked in two runs. Two errors by Denis Menke helped St. Louis to three runs in the fourth inning, two of Flood's single.

Derrell Griffith's bases-loaded, two-run double broke a 5-5 tie and started the Dodgers on the way to their 12-inning triumph. A third run scored in the inning on a force play. The Pirates rallied for three big runs in the eighth the last two scoring as second baseman Nate Oliver threw wildly to home with the bases loaded.

SARATOGA SPRINGS, N.Y. (AP) — Speedy Scot, needing a victory in each of the two remaining races of the Harness Tracks of America Trot series to qualify for the finals, takes on seven rivals Friday night in the $10,000 stop at Saratoga Raceway.

The 4-year-old trotters will clash again at Freehold Raceway Sept. 12 before the leaders come together in the $50,000 finale at Roosevelt Raceway Sept. 19.

LOU MICHAELS IS SUSPENDED
PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Steelers have indefinitely suspended Lou Michaels, a defensive end and left-footed kicking specialist.

Coach Buddy Parker said Wednesday Michaels was suspended for breaking training rules. He did not elaborate.

Parker declined to say if the suspension would be lifted by Sunday so Michaels could participate in an exhibition game against the Baltimore Colts at Canton, Ohio.

Michaels flew back to Pittsburgh from the Steelers Wednesday from their training camp at Kingston, R. I.

If Michaels does not play Sunday, John Baker will start in Michaels' right end position, while Dan LaRose, a recent acquisition from the Detroit Lions, will start at Baker's left end slot.

Kicking specialist Mike Clark, obtained from the Philadelphia Eagles this week, would handle Michaels' kickoff and place kicking chores.

MUSIAL WILL RECEIVE TESTS

ST. LOUIS (AP) — "I had planned to lose some weight," said Stan Musial Wednesday night, "but I think I carried it too far."

The former St. Louis Cardinal baseball star remained confined at Jewish Hospital following his collapse Tuesday night at the Cardinal-Milwaukee game at Busch Stadium.

But, said Dr. I. C. Middleman, the Cardinals' and Musial's physician, "Stan should be out of the hospital in a few days."

The 43-year-old physical fitness director, now a Cardinal vice president, experienced extensive diarrhea and vomiting causing dehydration prior to his collapse.

"His condition is satisfactory and he is being kept under observation," explained the physician. "We will conduct various tests to determine the exact nature of his ailment."

Dr. Middleman said Musial suffered an "enteritis virus," brought on by emotional and physical exhaustion.

CARLISLE — Dickinson College faces an acute manpower shortage as it awaits start of football practice on Monday.

In fact, the player scarcity is so severe Dickinson has asked the Middle Atlantic Conference (MAC) to waive the freshman rule in its case for the coming year.

The rule, which makes freshmen ineligible for varsity play at schools where there are more than 750 male students, was to have applied to Dickinson this fall for the first time.

"We will be dangerously thin in manpower if we cannot use freshmen during the coming season," said Coach Don Seibert. "Our player loss through graduation and other causes was unusually heavy the past year."

Seibert can count on 19 lettermen and nine other players from last year's squad and that's all. With only two seniors on the squad, Harold Harris, quarterback and place-kicker Larry Snyder, Littleton, the Dickinson team will be an unusually young one.

No Violence In Woman's Death

HARRISBURG (AP) — Authorities have ruled out the possibility of foul play in the death of Mrs. Alice Mitchell Woodside, whose body was discovered Tuesday in a brush filled area of her family's farm in Susquehanna Twp.

Dr. Thomas J. Fritchey, Dauphin County coroner, said the 41-year-old mother of four died by means other than an act of violence. He added, however, that the precise cause of death still was not known.

WEDNESDAY'S STARS

PITCHING — Milt Pappas, Orioles, allowed only one hit, a single with two out in the eighth inning by Zoilo Versalles, and hurled his sixth shutout as American League leading Baltimore edged Minnesota 2-0 and maintained its one-half game hold on first place.

BATTING — Tony Taylor, Phillies, stroked a two-run single in the fourth inning, leading National League leading Philadelphia to a 2-1 victory over Houston.

AYRES TAKES TROT CLASSIC IN TWO HEATS

By CHARLES CHAMBERLAIN
Associated Press Sports Writer
DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP) — "Fastest trotter I've ever seen. He is even faster than I thought he was. And he could have gone even faster than I thought he was. And he could have gone even faster in the first heat."

That is how 44-year-old John Simpson Sr., who has been driving and training harness horses for 25 years, sums up Ayres.

Ayres, the little hot-rod son of the great Star's Pride, won the 39th Hambletonian in successive heats on the well-manicured clay mile oval of the Du Quoin State Fairgrounds Wednesday.

WAS FAVORITE
He was an official even-money favorite in the betless race and the railbirds had him pegged perfectly as the overwhelming choice in the field of nine 3-year-old trotting colts.

A television cable stretched above the starting line cast its shadow on the track and the highly strung Ayres shied at it as the first heat opened.

"He took two or three bad steps but didn't go completely off stride," said Simpson.

Recovering quickly, Ayres peeled off like a dragster and soon was moving into good position as Sesebo, Scribe Rodney and Rain Water broke, to help scatter the field.

HANOVER-OWNED
Ayres, owned by Mrs. Charlotte N. Sheppard of Hanover, Pa., wheeled out of fourth place at the three-quarter pole, took the lead near mid-stretch and won by one length over Big John and 32-year-old Eddie Wheeler.

The time was a sensational 1:56 4-5, erasing the Hambletonian record of 1:57 3-5 set by Floris last year and matching the all-time competitive record mile by a trotter of any age.

The latter mark was set by Speedy Scot at Lexington last fall.

BY HALF LENGTH
Ayres again streaked from fourth at the three-quarter post into the lead in the stretch of the second heat, again beating Big John, by one-half length, the time was 1:58 1-5.

The combined heat times of 3:55 is the second fastest in competitive trotting history and only two-fifths of a second off the record of 3:54 3-5 hoisted by Speedy Scot in winning the Kentucky Futurity at Lexington last fall.

Speedy Scot captured trotting's triple crown in 1963 with victories in the Yonkers Futurity, the Hambletonian and the Kentucky Futurity.

$56,487 FOR WINNER
Ayres, who has won nine of 10 starts this year, now has taken the first two jewels in the crown and can win it with a victory at Lexington Oct. 9. Meanwhile, he will be shipped back to Roosevelt Raceway in New York.

Ayres, who in 1963 set a world record for 2-year-old trotters on a half-mile track of 2:00 1-5 in the Ohio Standard Bred Futurity, collected $56,487 for his Hambletonian triumph, boosting his 1964 earnings to $155,336.

Norwegian Shatters All Javelin Records

OSLO, Norway (AP) — A 20-year-old Norwegian dental student has shattered the 300-foot javelin throw barrier with a fantastic heave more than 15 feet better than the listed world record.

Terje Pedersen made his spectacular throw of 300 feet, 11 inches in an international meet between Norway and Czechoslovakia at Bislet Stadium Wednesday. The 209-pound youngster's performance easily topped the listed world mark of 285-7 set by Carlo Lievore of Italy in 1961.

Alou Is Spiked In Rundown Play

NEW YORK (AP) — Jesus Alou of the San Francisco Giants suffered a spike wound in the ninth inning of Wednesday night's game against the New York Mets and may be out for the remainder of the season.

Alou was caught in a rundown between first and second base and was spiked on the outside of the left heel by Met second baseman Ron Hunt.

Agreement Reached On Welfare Aid Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate-House conferees have agreed on an appropriation bill to finance activities of the Welfare and Labor Departments during the fiscal year that started June 30.

The approximately $7-billion money bill was cleared Wednesday with House action expected later in the week.

The biggest item is $6.4 billion for the Welfare Department, including $2,780,000,000 for grants to the states for public assistance.

Switch SP Game To Littlestown

Arrangements have been made for the use of Memorial Field, Littlestown, as the site of the South Penn Baseball League playoff game next Wednesday evening instead of the McSherrystown field.

McSherrystown will meet the loser of Sunday's game between New Oxford and Taneytown for fourth place in the post-season playoffs.

The switch in sites for the game was made in order that a full nine-inning game could be played by using the lights at Memorial Field.

CHISOX BID FOR PENNANT HITS FLURRY

By JERRY LISKA
Associated Press Sports Writer
CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox had their tense bid for the American League pennant complicated Thursday by a dispute with Commissioner Ford Frick over the services of ancient Minnie Minoso.

What seemed a routine White Sox acquisition of 41-year-old outfielder Minoso from Indianapolis Tuesday suddenly became a burning issue when Frick Wednesday ruled the Sox guilty of hanky-panky in the transaction.

Even as the White Sox rode behind Gary Peters' five-hit shutout pitching for a 7-0 triumph over the pesky Detroit Tigers at Comiskey Park Wednesday night, General Manager Ed Short accused Frick of "just being obstinate" in the Minoso case.

The Sox, still a half-game behind the pace-setting Baltimore Orioles, had sought the aged, but still fiery Minoso for pinch-hitting and inspirational purposes in the September stretch run.

"I will talk to Frick again today and, if he wants it, I'll put Minoso on irrevocable waivers and any club can have him for $20,000," snorted Short.

Frick claims the White Sox action in shipping Minoso to Indianapolis of the Pacific Coast League six weeks ago and then repurchasing him Tuesday, was a "cover up" and violated intent of the rules on player transaction.

WAS ON WAIVERS
Short asserted no major league club claimed Minoso when waivers were asked on him between July 13 and July 17. Minoso then signed with Indianapolis, a White Sox farm club.

Minoso, who played 10 of his 14 major league seasons with the White Sox, batted .270 for Indianapolis prior to his purchase by the Sox Tuesday.

SAARI WANTS TO RACE ROSE

NEW YORK (AP) — Roy Saari, the first man to break the 17-minute mark in the 1,500-meter freestyle swim, says he would be happy if Australian officials change their minds and put Olympic great Murray Rose against him in the Tokyo Games.

"That would make it a real world championship," said the 19-year-old dynamo from El Segundo, Calif., shortly after he had cracked the world record for the metric mile with a sensational 16:58.7 performance in the final of the Olympic Trials Wednesday.

"It was great to be the first," said Saari, "because someone will have to shorten the time. I won't be the only one to break 17 minutes. I imagine there will be four or five of us and I think it will take 16:50 to win the gold medal at Tokyo."

Saari's time smashed his own listed world standard of 17:05.5, set in Tokyo a year ago, and erased the pending mark of 17:01.8 reeled off by swimmer Rose, not the sports writer, in the National AAU championships at Los Altos, Calif., Aug. 2.

Australian officials thumbed down a plea by Rose, winner of four Olympic gold medals, to be made a member of the Olympic team, because he did not try to make the team in Australia.

List Sonny Liston As Top Contender

NEW YORK (AP) — Ring Magazine, refusing to go along with the World Boxing Association in outlawing a return match between champion Cassius Clay and Sonny Liston, listed Liston as the No. 1 heavyweight contender today.

Ring also said it didn't support the WBA threat to take Clay's title away from him if he meets Liston in a return, tentatively set for November at a site to be announced.

The magazine said it sees in Clay's $50,000 deal with Intercontinental Promotions, Inc., and the Nilon brothers a legal mandate to give them first defense call on Cassius' services, which means a return bout with Liston.

MISSING POP FLY BRINGS WIN TO PHILS

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Four men could have caught a little foul pop fly hit by Philadelphia Phillies catcher Clay Dalrymple Wednesday night.

But no one did. It's such things that games (and pennants?) are won—or lost—by. It was such a misplay by which the Phillies were able to edge the Houston Colts, 2-1, at Connie Mack Stadium Wednesday night.

Wes Covington was on first in the fourth inning when Dalrymple, attempting to sacrifice, popped up to the right of the plate. Colt catcher Jerry Grote might have caught it, but he bumped into Dalrymple. Pitcher Don Nottebart and first baseman Walter Bond had a crack at it, too.

So did Bob Aspromonte, racing in from third. He couldn't quite make it in time.

"Four guys could've caught that ball," said Aspromonte later. "But nobody yelled. That's what happened—nobody yelled."

Dalrymple, given another chance, lined a single to right, sending Covington to second. Frank Thomas moved both runners to second and third. Then Tony Taylor became the Phil's hero for Sept. 2, lining a single over second, scoring Covington and Dalrymple.

The two runs held up, as Chris Short gave up only one tally to the Colts. Aspromonte knocked in that one in the sixth inning.

Short gave up only three other hits in the game, as he matched teammate Jim Bunning's 15 wins for the season. Short has seven losses.

The win kept the Phillies 5½ games ahead of the National League pace, as second-place Cincinnati went 12 inns to edge Chicago, 1-0.

The Colts were back at Connie Mack tonight for the wrap-up of the three-game set.

Pappas Beats Twins On One-hitter; Chisox Win On Shutout As Yanks Bow

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Zorro has left his mark on Milt Pappas.

Pappas pitched no-hit ball for 7 2-3 innings and wound up with a one-hitter as the Baltimore Orioles maintained their slim, one-half game grip on the American League lead by edging Minnesota 2-0 Wednesday night.

The unkind cut was administered with two out in the eighth by Twins' shortstop Zoilo (Zorro) Versalles, who swung at a first-pitch fastball and ripped it between third and short to deprive Pappas of a no-hitter.

BATTLE OF WITS
Pappas admitted after the game that he had given Versalles a fat fastball, losing a battle of wits.

"It was one of those funny situations," said the 25-year-old right-hander. "The first two

HANNER MAKES SQUAD AGAIN

GREEN BAY, Wis. (AP) — Dave Hanner, the granddaddy of the Green Bay Packers, is resting easier. He has made the club for his 13th National Football League season.

"Every year it's more of a struggle and you have to bear down harder," the veteran defensive tackle said today. "You always have to fight for your job. There's always some young guy trying to beat you out."

Although 34, Hanner doesn't feel he's too old for his role in one of pro football's most rugged lines.

"There are quite a few players in the league older," he noted. "There's Jack Robustelli, Gino Marchetti, Andy Rostowski and Y.A. Tittle to name a few. I don't think age makes so much difference if a player can avoid injuries and keep in condition."

Nicknamed Hawg by teammates many years ago, the former Arkansas star felt his job was in jeopardy this season after the Packers drafted several outstanding tackles, including Nebraska's Lloyd Voss, the No. 1 selection. And it didn't help when he was kept on the bench as Green Bay dropped a 20-7 decision to St. Louis in the pre-season opener.

Chance got all the support he needed when Joe Adcock followed an error and Willie Smith's double in the fourth inning with his 18th homer and No. 301 of his career.

NEGROES WILL HAVE MORE SAY IN NOVEMBER

By AUSTIN SCOTT

NEW YORK (AP) — The nation's 20 million Negroes will have more say at the polls this November than ever before, a nationwide survey showed today.

The reason—a history-making emphasis on voter registration in the civil rights movement. Some registration drives started in 1962.

Despite a lack of official figures, leaders of campaigns from New York to Los Angeles generally claim excellent response. Many aim their campaigns at the defeat of Republican presidential nominee Barry Goldwater.

MORE WHITES REGISTER

But there are indications that in some areas, particularly in the South, that whites also are flocking to the registrar's office in ever-increasing numbers.

Negro registration gains in 11 Southern states, placed at more than half a million by a sponsoring biracial agency, have been accompanied by larger gains in white registration in some areas.

In the North, where voter registration efforts centered mainly in the larger cities, there was no estimate of the total number of Negroes registered. Most cities reported increased registration from predominantly Negro areas.

5 MILLION ON ROLLS

James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality, said there are nearly five million registered Negroes out of a potential 12 million, with three million of them in the North.

The country's Negro population is just about evenly split, North and South, he said.

An Associated Press survey showed no official breakdown of Negro and white voters is recorded in seven of the 11 Dixie states. In the four where breakdowns were available—Florida, Arkansas, Louisiana and Virginia—Negro registration showed an increase.

IMPORTANT GAINS

The council report said increases since 1960 in Negro registration in some Southern states are greater than the margin by which one or the other of the presidential candidates carried those states in 1960.

No Northern cities where major drives are being held keep separate registration totals for Negroes and Whites, but most officials reported increased registration.

The POWER of FAITH

By WOODI ISHMAEL

St. John Eudes was a man who enjoyed and preferred the contemplative life but the need to act and speak forced him into preaching. "I fear not to put to holy purpose the talents which God has given me for the salvation of souls."

France suffered mightily from the ravages of the Huguenot revolt of 1562. Plague and famine followed the war. The people were neglected and their parishes in ruins. Thus was the state of France when St. John Eudes was ordained in 1625, at the age of 24. He joined the Priest of the Mission under St. Vincent De Paul.

With great zeal, he founded the congregation of the Mission Priests of Jesus and Mary for the training of priests in missionary work. Many women who fell into ill ways were converted by St. John Eudes and for them he established the order of Our Lady of Charity, for the education and rehabilitation of delinquent girls and women. A form of the order exists today in many areas of the world.

Khanh Returns To Assume Command Of Viet Nam Govt.

By MALCOLM W. BROWNE

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Maj. Gen. Nguyen Khanh again assumed full command of South Viet Nam's shaky government today.

The premier said he had won support of Buddhist leaders who were threatening to renew antigovernment violence unless their demands were met.

Khanh's return to power after a five-day "temporary retirement" at the mountain resort of Dalat was disclosed by a government spokesman following a six-hour emergency Cabinet session. Khanh flew to Saigon from Dalat amid reports that he was demanding full support from all members of the caretaker government that had been led by acting Premier Nguyen Xuan Oanh.

"The military has promised Gen. Khanh their complete support. The situation looks much more stabilized today," the spokesman said.

DAI VIET PARTY

Khanh, 37, was expected to retain members of the powerful Dai Viet party in the government and the armed forces. Before Khanh went to Dalat last week, following violent antigovernment demonstrations, he charged that members of the party had plotted against his government. He conferred today with Nguyen Ten Hoan, leader of the party who resigned Wednesday as vice premier after charging Khanh's government had no legal standing.

"Gen. Khanh plans no reprisals against them," the spokesman said.

WINS AGREEMENT

Khanh also won an agreement from Buddhist leaders to call off a planned hunger strike and a possible general strike, the government said. The agreement presumably entails concessions, but these were not spelled out.

The spokesman said the Buddhists fully supported his resumption of duties.

Buddhist leaders had planned a 48-hour fast in a move to end what they called "indiscriminate arrests, provocations and oppressions."

Oanh, who was visiting the northern city of Hue, was to return to his duties as deputy minister for economic affairs.

EMERGENCY SESSIONS

Khanh went into the emergency session today immediately after returning from Dalat. He appeared in good health.

The politician-soldier apparently had continued to direct government affairs although he said he was resting in Dalat. He said he had a heart condition and high blood pressure.

"Gen. Khanh's heart is much better. I cannot tell you much more," government officials told newsmen today.

U.S. Ambassador Maxwell D. Taylor had indicated Khanh would again assume power in Viet Nam.

U. S. SUPPORT

Oanh, a Harvard-educated economist, took over just before the government cracked down

NEED JOBS IN PHILADELPHIA

WASHINGTON (AP) — Declining employment at the Port of Philadelphia makes it imperative that labor and management find mutual solutions to manpower needs and job security, the Labor Department says.

In a report released Wednesday, the department said that from 1960 through 1962, nearly 40 per cent of the work force at the Philadelphia Port was employed less than 100 hours. The work force at Philadelphia averaged about 7,000 in 1960-62, the report said.

The report recommended reduction of the work force and the establishment of a system of centralized and controlled hiring.

"The union's fear that job opportunities in the port are decreasing is well founded," the report said.

on the street fighting that wracked Saigon. He said then that he would head a caretaker government for two months, but that he still considered Khanh the real leader as head of the ruling triumvirate of generals.

The United States regards Khanh as the strongest leader in South Viet Nam. It has made no secret of its desire to have him back at the helm.

Sgt. York Will Be Buried In Beloved Green Valley Of Three Forks Of Wolf

By BILL RAWLINS
PALL MALL, Tenn. (AP) — Sgt. Alvin C. York, who rode out to war 47 years ago in a horse-drawn sully, has returned to his beloved green valley of the Three Forks of the Wolf. President Johnson led tributes from across the nation.

The doughboy hero of World War I died Wednesday in Nashville's Veterans Hospital at the age of 76, succumbing to a urinary tract infection.

The funeral, to which President Johnson and other leaders will send representatives or attend, will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at York's Chapel here on the banks of the Wolf River in the Cumberland Mountains.

EXPRESS SORROW

The President expressed his sorrow Wednesday, saying the Medal of Honor winner "epitomized the gallantry of American fighting men and their sacrifices in behalf of freedom."

Gen. Harold J. Johnson, chief of staff of the 3rd Army, released this statement: "In recognition of the special place that Sgt. York holds in the hearts of his Army comrades, past and present, the Army is furnishing an escort, band, firing party and bugler from his old outfit—the 82nd 'All-American' Division—to participate in the funeral service."

SING 3 HYMNS

A choir will sing three of the York's favorite songs, "Faithful Lord Jesus," "Faith of Our Fathers," and "Onward Christian Soldiers." His strong religious convictions became part of the York legend. Once a conscientious objector he went on to answer his country's call to World War I and killed 25 Germans and captured 132 more virtually single handed in the battle of Argonne Forest.

Not far down the Wolf River from the chapel where the funeral will be held is the big white farm house in which York lived for the past 42 years. He built the house in 1922 with money raised by his grateful, fellow Tennesseans.

BLIND 10 YEARS

York had been blind and virtually blind for 10 years, and had been in the hospital 10 times in the past two years before the final attack which began last Saturday. His family and his doctors agreed that the complications that he had battled for a decade would have killed a lesser man long ago.

The curtains were drawn today on the sun porch, which had bounded York's world for the past 10 years, and the big white house seemed somehow empty in the midst of the bustle of preparations for his funeral. His smile and his once booming voice were missing. His death struck a hammer blow at Miss Gracie, his childhood sweetheart whom he married in 1919 and who was the tower of strength when he needed her most — the bedside years. It was she who greeted the steady stream of visitors who stopped at York's home, near the Kentucky line north of Jamestown, Tenn., and fronting U.S. Highway 127.

But when she returned from Nashville in the hearse which brought her famous husband's body to Jamestown Wednesday night, she embraced her youngest son, Tommy, and sobbed uncontrollably. Soon though, she had composed herself and was busy making plans for the funeral.

ARE NAMED TO STATE BOARDS

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton Wednesday announced these appointments:

State Veterans Commission—Joseph M. Ponist, commandant, Department of Pennsylvania Marine Corps League; Monroe R. Bethman, commander, Department of Pennsylvania American Legion; Vaughn L. Brown, commander, Department of Pennsylvania AMVETS; Henry C. Berlitz, commander, Department of Pennsylvania Military Order of the Purple Heart; William J. Farley, commander, Department of Pennsylvania Veterans of Foreign Wars.

State Art Commission—Charles Rudy, Ottsville, Bucks County, reappointed; Mrs. Gertrude H. Nauman, Harrisburg; Willard S. Hahn, Allentown; James Bush-Brown, Ambler, reappointed.

Haverford State Hospital Board—Miss Agnes P. Sweeney and Mrs. Eileen Hinkson, both Wallingford, Delaware County.

GETS TRAFFIC TICKET
SEATTLE, Wash. (AP) — Michael T. Gray, state licenses director, got a traffic ticket Wednesday. Yep, you guessed it. Driving without a license. "I changed my suit and forgot to change my wallet," said the embarrassed Gray.

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Marion Woltman, 87, widow of the 19th century author, statesman and orator Ignatius Donnelly, died Tuesday.

NEW YORK (AP) — Moe Gale, 65, theatrical character who discovered the celebrated "Ink Spots" quartet and developed the Savoy and Roseland ballrooms, died Tuesday.

Downed Navy Pilot Home After Escape From Reds

SAN DIEGO, Calif. (AP) — his only comment when he reached Travis at 8:45 p.m. The Navy Lt. Charles F. Klusmann, the jet pilot shot down over Laos and captured by Communists nearly three months ago, is home again with his wife and two children today.

But the story of his escape to Thailand and safety is yet to be told, when the Navy so decrees. Klusmann, 30, was limping slightly and one arm was bandaged when he arrived at North Island Naval Air Station late Wednesday night. Those waiting to greet him included Adm. Thomas H. Moorer, commander in chief, Pacific Fleet, who had briefed him before the lieutenant's plane went down in Laos June 6.

"Admiral, I owe you a big apology," Klusmann told Moorer. "You told me not to get shot down, and I did." "That's all right, Chuck," said the admiral. "It's good to have you back."

ARRIVED WITH WIFE
The pilot and his comely, Auburn-haired wife, Sara, arrived at 11:20 p.m. from Travis Air Force Base, Calif., where she had gone to meet him earlier in the evening after his flight from Honolulu.

Both wore leis as they came down the plane's ramp at San Diego. Klusmann was attired in khaki cotton trousers, a short-sleeved shirt and slippers. His wife clung firmly to his arm. Navy officials said that he would be checked up immediately at a San Diego naval hospital for injuries he received when he was shot down.

Klusmann embraced his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred L. Klusmann, of Arcadia, Calif., and placed a lei around his mother's neck.

REFUSES COMMENT

Asked by newsmen if he had any help in escaping or met any other Americans in prison, Klusmann replied: "I can't say anything about that."

His escape to Thailand was made known Tuesday. Briefing officers said they hoped to determine later today when he will be permitted to grant interviews.

"It's great to be back," was Buzzing Package Stirs Airport Scare

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Things began to hum at San Francisco International Airport when a mail sack started buzzing.

Some onlookers thought the sack was vibrating too. The FBI, sheriff's officers and an Army disposal unit carried the sack from a cargo plane to an open field.

Inside they discovered a battery-operated shoe buffer going at spit-polish pace.

Quieted, the device resumed its trip to an apparently weary, armed Marine stationed overseas.

NEW FAMILY FOR LASSIE THIS SEASON

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Next Sunday is departure day for "Lassie." CBS' top dog, returning for its 11th television season, will be left behind with a new owner, when his long-time family moves to Australia.

Lassie, if not the viewers, ought to be accustomed to family changes. Her (or, more accurately, his) new owner will be a forest ranger and become Lassie's second and one-half family.

At the beginning of the TV series, Lassie was owned by a family of three, including a boy, Tommy. Tommy, however, began to get pretty big for the part, so Jon Provost was introduced as an orphan, adopted by the family, and later Tommy quietly disappeared.

LASSIE IS STAR
Then one season Lassie turned up with a set of brand new parents for Jon. They disappeared after six months and Jon suddenly was the child of June Lockhart and Hugh Reilly.

Bonita Granville Wrather, the former film star who is associate producer of the series and whose husband owns the show, said the decision for another radical change was made last year "to give us more scope."

The shift of custody will take place during three episodes made last spring to kick off the new season.

"We have a theory that there is just one star on the show — the dog," she said. "And there were only a certain number of things you could do logically with the boy, his parents and the farm. No matter what you did, you still had to go back to the three people and the farm."

AN INSTITUTION NOW

She admitted young viewers might shed a few sad tears at the separation of dog and young master.

"Sure, they may weep a little, but I don't think it will tear them apart," she said.

The big change of format, she emphasized, was not undertaken because young Provost was outgrowing his role or because there was any dissatisfaction with other players or the show.

The dog star, after about 20 years in movies and television, is an institution. The Wrathers make no secret of the fact that "Lassie" is the second to bear the name and always has been a male collie.

"His trainer, Rudd Weatherwax, finds the males less nervous, stronger with more beautiful coats — and much easier to train," she said.

Visitors Welcome On Astoria Pier 2

ASTORIA, Ore. (AP) — Tourists who stop at Pier 2 in this commercial fishing center may end up with frozen tuna in their hands.

Longshoremen and truck drivers view any visitor who stops to watch the transfer of frozen fish from ships to trucks as a potential friend of the fishing industry.

If the visitor is carrying a camera, he is invited to have his picture taken with a fancy fish. Workers at the pier say no one yet has turned down the suggestion.

The bastinado, or beating, method of reducing taxes was once practiced in the Near East. Potential taxpayers suspected of concealing assets were beaten until they promised to pay up — the sum required growing less with the amount of punishment suffered.

HEALTH BILL IS PASSED BY SENATE 49-44

By JOE HALL
WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Democratic leaders "drove" for passage today of a Social Security bill with a program of health care for the aged already written into it.

Sen. Mike Mansfield, D-Mont., the majority leader, obtained an agreement to limit debate on all remaining amendments.

The first to be considered today was one by Sen. Winston L. Prouty, R-Vt., to raise the minimum Social Security payment from $40 to $70 a month. It was not expected to be adopted.

FINAL ACTION

Mansfield said the measure might be passed and sent back to the House late today. If not, he said, final action will come Friday in time for a three-day Labor Day weekend.

The biggest Senate fight on the legislation was settled Wednesday with a dramatic 49-44 vote to add to it hospitalization and other health care benefits for persons over 65.

Increased retirement and other benefits would also be provided, and both the tax rates and the wage base on which they are levied would be raised to meet the added costs.

FIRST TIME

It was the first time either branch of Congress ever had agreed to write a health care program into the 29-year-old Social Security system. The Senate rejected similar proposals in 1960 and 1962.

The health care amendment, sponsored by Sens. Albert Gore, D-Tenn., and Clinton P. Anderson, D-N.M., was put through with votes of 44 Democrats and 5 Republicans.

Opposed were 16 Democrats, including 15 Southerners and Sen. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio, and 28 Republicans including Sen. Barry Goldwater, his party's presidential nominee.

President Johnson, who strongly supported the Gore-Anderson proposal, said in a statement the vote was "a victory not only for older Americans but for all Americans."

GOLDWATER OPPOSED

But Goldwater said the action "reveals a contempt for the intelligence and judgment of our people" and implies they "are incapable of deciding how to spend their money." He called it an additional tax burden on wage earners.

The health care amendment was added to a House-passed Social Security bill. It seemed to face highly dubious prospects

Pumps Gold Water At Cody, Wyoming

CODY, Wyo. (AP) — Wyoming House Speaker Marlin Kutrz of Cody is pumping gold water on behalf of a Republican victory in November.

The GOP legislator operates a pipe supply company in Cody and for advertising purposes has a large pump outside which keeps a constant stream of gold-colored water circulating in a tank.

A sign under the pump reads: "Pumping for Goldwater."

Mrs. John Shroyer Dies At Shamokin

SHAMOKIN, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Maud D. Shroyer, whose late husband served as secretary of highways from 1943-46, died at her home Wednesday. She was 78.

Mrs. Shroyer was past president of the Pennsylvania Auxiliary of United Spanish War Veterans and of the State Auxiliary of the Sons of Union Veterans.

She was the widow of John U. Shroyer, dress manufacturer and publisher of the weekly Shamokin Citizen. The family still operates both enterprises.

Shroyer served as national president of the Spanish War Veterans. In 1946, he opposed James H. Duff in the Republican gubernatorial primary. Duff won the primary and the election.

Mrs. Shroyer is survived by seven children. Burial will be in Shamokin Saturday.

Will Run Again In Poor Man's Party

SECAUCUS, N.J. (AP) — Henry Krajewski, the former pig farmer, has made it official. He'll be a presidential candidate under the Poor Man's party banner "against two millionaires," he said Wednesday.

The semiretired tavern owner said he has nothing against President Johnson or his Republican opponent, Sen. Barry Goldwater, except that "they've been politicians too long."

Krajewski, 52, a father of five, organized the Poor Man's party in 1949 and has run for president in 1952, 1956 and 1960. He's also campaigned for U. S. senator, governor and a variety of local offices, losing every time.

There are 28 different colors of human skin.

when the measure goes to a Senate-House conference to reconcile the differences.

Rep. Wilbur D. Mills, D-Ark., who long has opposed putting health benefits into Social Security, will head the House conferees.

SCUBA DIVERS WARNED ABOUT PLANE TRIPS

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. (AP) — A small airplane cleared the end of the airport runway, climbing rapidly. The altimeter indicator rotated slowly as the pilot pointed the nose of the aircraft into a climb.

The pilot, his wife and two children had been enjoying a few days at one of the large Oklahoma lakes.

A half hour before take-off, the man had taken a final scuba (for self-contained underwater breathing apparatus) dive.

When the altimeter of the plane reached the 8,000-foot reading, the pilot lunged forward—complaining of sharp pains in his knee and elbow.

The explanation, in essence, is that pilots who scuba dive should allow adequate time to elapse before they get behind the controls of a plane.

The pilot was a victim of the bends—a condition commonly associated with divers who move too quickly from a deep location to the surface of the water.

The situation — and the people — described here are hypothetical. But the Federal Aviation Agency says it is based on records of private airplane accidents and facts gleaned from their investigations. The FAA says there are recorded instances of private pilots suffering the bends while flying after scuba diving. Some recovered sufficiently to land safely, others crashed.

Can a man who dives in relatively shallow water also become so afflicted when he goes up in an aircraft too soon?

Scientists at the Federal Aviation Agency's aeromedical research center here says there is very real danger of severe pains and possibly blacking out and death.

On well known law and physics, called Henry's Law, tells what happens to the human body in circumstances such as those encountered by the pilot. It says, "The amount of gas dissolved in the human body is directly proportionate to the pressure on the body."

In layman's language, if a person was under pressure, say at 100 feet of water, certain gases are absorbed in the body. If that pressure is rapidly lightened, the gas is apt to form bubbles in the blood stream.

That is what happens in the bends. Nitrogen bubbles form in the blood stream and seem to stop in the joints. Intense pain results.

74 Restaurants Bombed Or Burned In Chicago During Past 32 Months

CHICAGO (AP) — Frightened restaurant owners have called for federal action to halt the 2½-year assault on Chicago businesses by arsonists and bombers who have caused $2.75 million damage.

Laurence Buckmaster, executive director of the Chicago and Illinois Restaurant Association, appealed directly Wednesday to Sen. John L. McClellan, D-Ark., head of the Senate Rackets Committee, to reopen hearings into the wave of restaurant attacks. The committee investigated an earlier outbreak of restaurant fires in 1958.

LATEST VICTIM

The latest victim of the terrorists, Joseph Wilkos, whose restaurant was bombed Tuesday night, also called for federal assistance.

The bombing of Wilkos' restaurant was the 74th uninvolved bombing or arson fire in the Chicago area in the last 32 months. For Wilkos it was the third time in three months that one of his chain of restaurants has been bombed.

Wilkos, 60, said he telephoned Rep. Harold Collier, R-Ill., in Washington to ask the FBI to investigate.

"When the FBI gets into something they get to the bottom of it," he said. "I think that if they would investigate, this could be the answer."

In Washington Collier agreed the situation "has reached a point where the FBI should be in on it."

Local officials planned to impanel a special grand jury today to investigate the bombings. State's Attorney Daniel P. Ward said that Wilkos would be one of the first witnesses.

Heart Attack Fells Allentown Mayor

ALLENTOWN, Pa. (AP) — John T. Gross, 55, mayor of Allentown since 1960, died today, apparently from a heart attack. He was not known to have had heart trouble, however, associates said, and only Wednesday was active as usual in carrying out his official duties.

Gross was a Democrat. Before winning the mayoral election four years ago he served under former Gov. George Leader on a state Industrial Development Commission, and played a big part in expanding industry in the Lehigh Valley.

Gross recently was elected president of the League of Cities of Pennsylvania.

Ronald Shealer, Gettysburg R. 1, and Gilbert Evans, Taneytown R. D., junior leader and leader, respectively, for the Adams County 4-H Electrical Clubs, are shown Wednesday at Pennsylvania State University where they attended a statewide 4-H electric workshop to learn how to make lamps, motors, meters, etc., preparatory to this year's club work.

Miss Donna E. Wisotzky, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald G. Wisotzky, R. 2, entered St. Joseph Hospital School of Nursing, Lancaster, Tuesday. She graduated this year from Delone Catholic High School, McSherrystown.

2 WHITE MEN NAMED KILLERS IN PENN CASE

By KATHRYN JOHNSON

DANIELSVILLE, Ga. (AP) — Two white men have been named in a statement as the killers of Negro educator Lemuel Penn. The statement was read in court over vigorous objections of their attorney.

The FBI said the statement, read Wednesday at the trial of Joseph Howard Sims and Cecil William Myers, was signed by James S. Lackey, one of four men charged in the slaying.

Penn, of Washington, D.C., was shot to death early July 11 as he drove through north Georgia with two companions.

Although Lackey has repudiated the statement, it was admitted as evidence by Superior Court Judge Carey Skelton after an hours-long legal battle between defense attorney James Hudson and a special prosecutor, Jeff Wayne.

As Wayne read the statement, the courtroom became deathly silent. The jury of white men listened impassively.

At one point, Wayne quoted: "Both Sims and Myers fired shotguns into the Negroes' car."

Myers' wife, expecting a fourth child at any time, burst into tears. She and Sims' mother sobbed. Several other women seated nearby began to cry.

Lackey, who faces trial later, was quoted as saying he "had no idea they would really shoot the Negro and was very surprised when two shots were fired."

Clete Johnson, the state prosecutor, was asked later by a reporter if the statement would serve to reduce the charge of murder against Lackey. He said, "No, he's subject to the same penalty as the others."

In a surprise move, state attorneys dropped charges against the fourth defendant — Herbert Guest — and called him to the stand as a prosecution witness.

Guest insisted he could not remember giving a statement to the FBI about the slaying.

Guest still faces a federal conspiracy charge under the civil rights law.

Children, Eddie and Hazel, and Mrs. Esther Baker spent Sunday at Cornwell as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Herring.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Sentz, Taneytown R. D., visited his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wetzel, Tuesday evening.

Kermit Wetzel, Solly, Md., was with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Wetzel, Sunday.

Governor "Runs" To Aid Olympics

HARRISBURG (AP) — "Are you going to run," Gov. Scranton was asked Wednesday.

The governor smiled, perhaps remembering when the question had some political significance.

"Yes," he replied simply.

And without further ado, he grasped a make-believe torch and scammed 50 yards down the driveway in front of the Capitol Building.

The running performance was staged to help promote an effort by the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce to raise $10 million for this country's Olympic Fund.

With some 100 spectators on hand, Scranton accepted the cardboard torch from a local Jaycee, ran down the driveway and passed the torch on to another bearer, who took it on another leg of its journey across the nation.

The Pennsylvania Jaycees hoped to raise $100,000 as their quota of the $1 million goal while the torch was passing through the Commonwealth.

James MARLOW Reports

By The Associated Press

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court, which has moved into vacuums Congress wouldn't fill, is getting its own particular kind of backlash from politicians.

In a struggle now over curbing the court's powers members of Congress have themselves so boxed in they may be here another month although they could use the time in election campaigning.

An attempt is being made to undo the court's ruling last June that voters in the states are entitled to far more equal representation in their state legislatures than they are getting now, to be selected.

CALLING DANGEROUS

Example: Under arrangements unchanged for more than half a century in some states a relatively small number of people in one district, especially country district, can elect one legislator while four times as many people squeezed into a single district elsewhere can elect only one.

The court said representation in both houses of state legislatures must be apportioned on a population basis of "one person, one vote," and federal courts have the job to see it done.

The present attempt to undercut the authority and range of the court is looked upon as so dangerous by opponents of the effort that one of them, Rep. Emanuel Celler, D-N.Y., said "it could wind up rendering the court a nullity, destroying our Republican system of government."

INFURIATED MANY

The powerful court over the past 10 years has infuriated one group after another with decisions ranging from a ban on segregation to a ban on official prayers in public schools. It inflamed the politicians — some of them — by its decision on state legislatures.

The politicians and political machines which hold power in state legislatures where representation is not on an equal population basis naturally don't want any changes that would cost them jobs or power.

Some people, not directly involved, may feel the court overreached itself. But the Republicans at their convention this year responded to the opposition to the court ruling by putting into their platform a promise in support of: "A constitutional amendment, as well as legislation, enabling states having bicameral (two-house) legislatures to apportion one house on bases of their own choosing, including factors other than population."

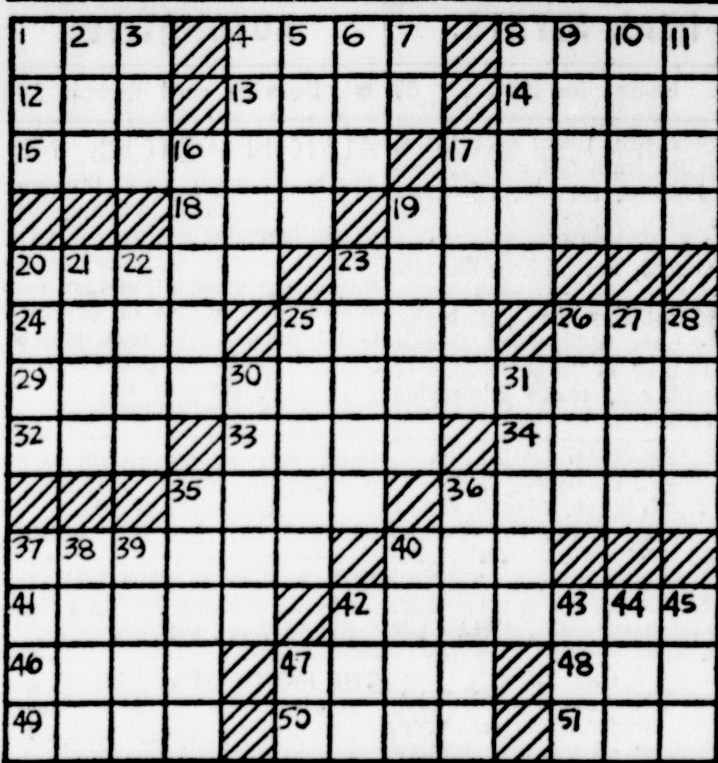

NOT THIS YEAR

This would take away the court's power to order reapportionment of both houses on a population basis.

A week after the Republican convention in July Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, Republican leader of the Senate, attempted to carry out the platform promise by introducing a proposed constitutional amendment in Congress.

But there wouldn't be time to act on it this year, since Congress is coming to an end. It would have to wait till next year. So as an interim move Dirksen made this proposal in the form of a bill to be passed this year: Delay any court or ders on reapportionment for about two years.

AS AMENDMENT

He didn't offer it as a bill by itself — he said he didn't think it had a chance that way — but as an amendment on the $3.5-billion foreign aid authorization bill.

JOHNSON SILENT

President Johnson is anxious to get the foreign aid money. If he vetoed the bill because of the attached Dirksen amendment, the whole thing would have to go back to Congress. He very probably wouldn't veto it.

For some strange reason, although the value of people's votes are involved in all this, Johnson has said nothing, taken no stand. The Democrats in their platform played mousey by leaving out all mention of reapportionment.

Mike Mansfield of Montana, Democratic leader in the Senate, worked out a compromise bill with Dirksen, just a little milder, and with the help of the Johnson administration's Justice Department.

STRONG OPPOSITION

But some members of the Senate — particularly liberals led by Sen. Paul Douglas, a Democrat and like Dirksen from Illinois — wouldn't buy any part of it and are determined to fight until they kill it. The two-year delaying action

BOYLE'S Grab Bag

NEW YORK (AP)—It's time for another double-talk drill.

Double-talk, you will recall, is the art of saying one thing while you're thinking the opposite.

Double-talk is the cement that holds society together. It is the basis of polite conversation everywhere, and of course in an election year we simply couldn't do without it.

Here are a few typical examples:

"No, Gerald, I'm not the least bit sleepy." If this bore doesn't go home soon, I'm going to yawn right in his big fat face.

"NO MUD SLINGING"

"Some men say a woman doesn't really become attractive until she's 30." But oh, how I wish I was 29 again.

"We want to keep this campaign on a high level. There'll be no mud-slinging on our part." Besides, my opponent has more mud to throw than I do.

"But officer, I know I couldn't have been going 65 miles an hour." I was doing 70 at least.

"This is one party platform that will be carried out." Carried out and buried.

DON'T ASK MONEY

"Can't I cut you another slice of meat, old boy?" The way this guy puts down the groceries, maybe it'd be simpler just to wrap up the roast and let him take it home.

"Mabel, I don't see how you ever got the idea your legs are too slim." Of course, they would look better on a canary.

"You're just the kind of man we need in public life, Jim. I'll be glad to lend you my support." Just so you don't ask me in the Dirksen bill would give Congress time to approve the kind of constitutional amendment he has in mind and then perhaps time for the states to approve.

A constitutional amendment must be approved by two-thirds of House and Senate and by three-fourths of the state legislatures — 38 out of 50 — or three-fourths of conventions called by the states. It is up to Congress to decide which method is to be used.

WOULD WELCOME CHANCE

If it was done by state conventions — to which delegates would be elected by the people — the voters could have a direct voice in whether they wanted reapportionment by voting for delegates who were for or against it.

But only once in American history — this was the 21st Amendment ending prohibition in 1933 — has an amendment submitted to the states by Congress been approved by state conventions.

If Dirksen's amendment went to state legislatures it's not hard to imagine the politicians who stood to lose jobs or power by reapportionment would jump at the chance to approve the amendment.

Helps Unload Truck Then Pulls Holdup

CHICAGO (AP) — "It was just like he changed from Dr. Jekyll to Mr. Hyde," said bakery truck driver Clarence Olson.

Olson, 58, was unloading his truck in a South Side alley when a man asked if he could help. The stranger helped unload 30 cases of crackers.

Then he stuck a revolver in Olson's side, made him give up $150 in receipts, and fled.

COMMITTEE OF 11 TO STUDY PA. MILK LAW

HARRISBURG (AP)—An 11-member committee, headed by a Pittsburgh educator, will take a hard look at the system of milk control in Pennsylvania and perhaps make recommendations on how the 27-year-old program might be updated.

Gov. Scranton appointed the special committee Wednesday and expressed hope that its findings "will lead to milk control legislation which is workable and in line with the needs of the people today."

Scranton designated as chairman of the committee Dr. Herbert A. Simon, associate dean of the graduate school at Carnegie Institute of Technology.

ASSIGNS KEY TASK

The governor said the fundamental task of the committee is to determine whether the milk control law, a depression measure enacted in 1937, has kept pace with present-day needs of the state.

The Milk Control Commission established to administer the law, has been under fire for several years because of its price fixing policies. The criticism for the most part has come from milk producers and consumers, who claim the policies favor the milk dealers.

Other members of the committee:

Mrs. Martha G. King, chairman of the Citizens Committee for Fair Milk Prices, Delmont; Mrs. Stanley Dombroski, housewife, Hanover Twp., Luzerne County; Rep. E. J. Farabaugh, D-Cambria; J. Lewis Williams, secretary-treasurer of the Pennsylvania Association of Artificial Breeding Cooperatives, Uniontown.

J. E. Holtzinger, publisher of the Altoona Mirror and past president of the Pennsylvania Newspaper Publishers Association; Dr. Frederic K. Miller, president of Lebanon Valley College, Annville; Glen A. Berger, president and manager of the Lehigh Valley Cooperative Farmers, Allentown.

Louis G. Galliker, president of the Pennsylvania Association of Milk Dealers, Johnstown; A. J. Faulhaber, vice president of Acme Markets, Inc., Philadelphia, and John B. Backhaus, president of the Driver-Salesmen's Local Union 463, Philadelphia.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pennsylvania's senators split Wednesday in the 49-4 vote by which the Upper House adopted an amendment to write a health care for the aged plan into the social security system.

Democrat Joseph S. Clark voted for the amendment, Republican Hugh Scott voted against it.

700 Police Protect The Beatles In Philadelphia

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Never have so many screamed so loud for so few.

The Beatles, shaggy-haired singing quartet, invaded Philadelphia, a city which hadn't been as excited about the arrival of the British since the War of 1812.

Most of the efforts of the barber-shy quartet were obscured by the continuous shrieks which began to build up shortly after the doors of Convention Hall opened some three hours before their performance Wednesday night.

MOST ADULTS FLEE

During their 25-minute appearance, a glance or a shake by one of them brought a deafening reply from the attending thousands.

Some adults who said they came out of curiosity scurried out of the hall soon after the Beatles came on stage, for when the group broke into a few "Yeahs, Yeahs," the fans intensified their screaming.

Drummer Ringo Starr evoked an instantaneous reaction each time he shook his hairy head. One girl about 14 years old just stood on her chair, clutching an "I Love the Beatles" button, and sobbed "Ringo, Ringo."

POLICE BARRICADES

The Beatles were protected from their well-wishers by 700 policemen, who steadfastly thwarted the fans' many attempts to assault the stage. The group arrived here from Atlantic City, N.J., several hours before.

MISS BLATT TO LAUNCH DRIVE

HARRISBURG (AP) — Genevieve Blatt returns to her native Clarion County Saturday to launch her campaign to unseat U.S. Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa.

The Voters for Blatt Committee announced Wednesday that the three-time state secretary of internal affairs would be guest of honor at a homecoming celebration in the small community of East Brady.

Miss Blatt was born in East Brady 50 years ago and went on to become the first woman elected to statewide office in Pennsylvania. She will kick off her senatorial campaign although her apparent primary victory is being contested in the courts.

She ran an independent race against Justice Michael A. Musmanno of the State Supreme Court, who had the support of the Democratic state organization. The margin of victory was 471 votes, but Musmanno has challenged a decision not to recount 6,000 contested ballots in Philadelphia.

fore the show, smuggled along in a fish truck, a bus, and then an ambulance.

"We pass the time by playing Monopoly," Paul McCartney told a press conference when asked how they endured the hours of waiting in hotel rooms, safe from their over-zealous fans.

Throughout the day out in front of Philadelphia's Convention Hall, teen-age girls gathered behind police barricades. Groups of them wandered through downtown hotels, searching for their heavy-haired heroes.

IN MIDWEST TONIGHT

One woman said her daughters had forced her to bring them the 800 miles from Augusta, Ga., to attend Tuesday night's brief performance.

A man sitting peacefully beneath the protection of earmuffs said he would have been afraid to allow his daughters to be there alone.

"Teen-agers are all about the same," McCartney told a press conference before the show. "The only difference is an accent or a language."

When one reporter asked the group about their favorite sort of serious music, McCartney replied, "All music's serious depending on who's listening to it."

The Beatles continue their 26-city tour of the United States with a performance at Indianapolis, Ind., tonight.

Urges Negroes To Vote For White

ATLANTA, Ga. (AP) — A Negro leader is urging members of his race to vote for a white moderate in a three-man race for the seat of Fulton Superior Court Judge Durwood T. Pye.

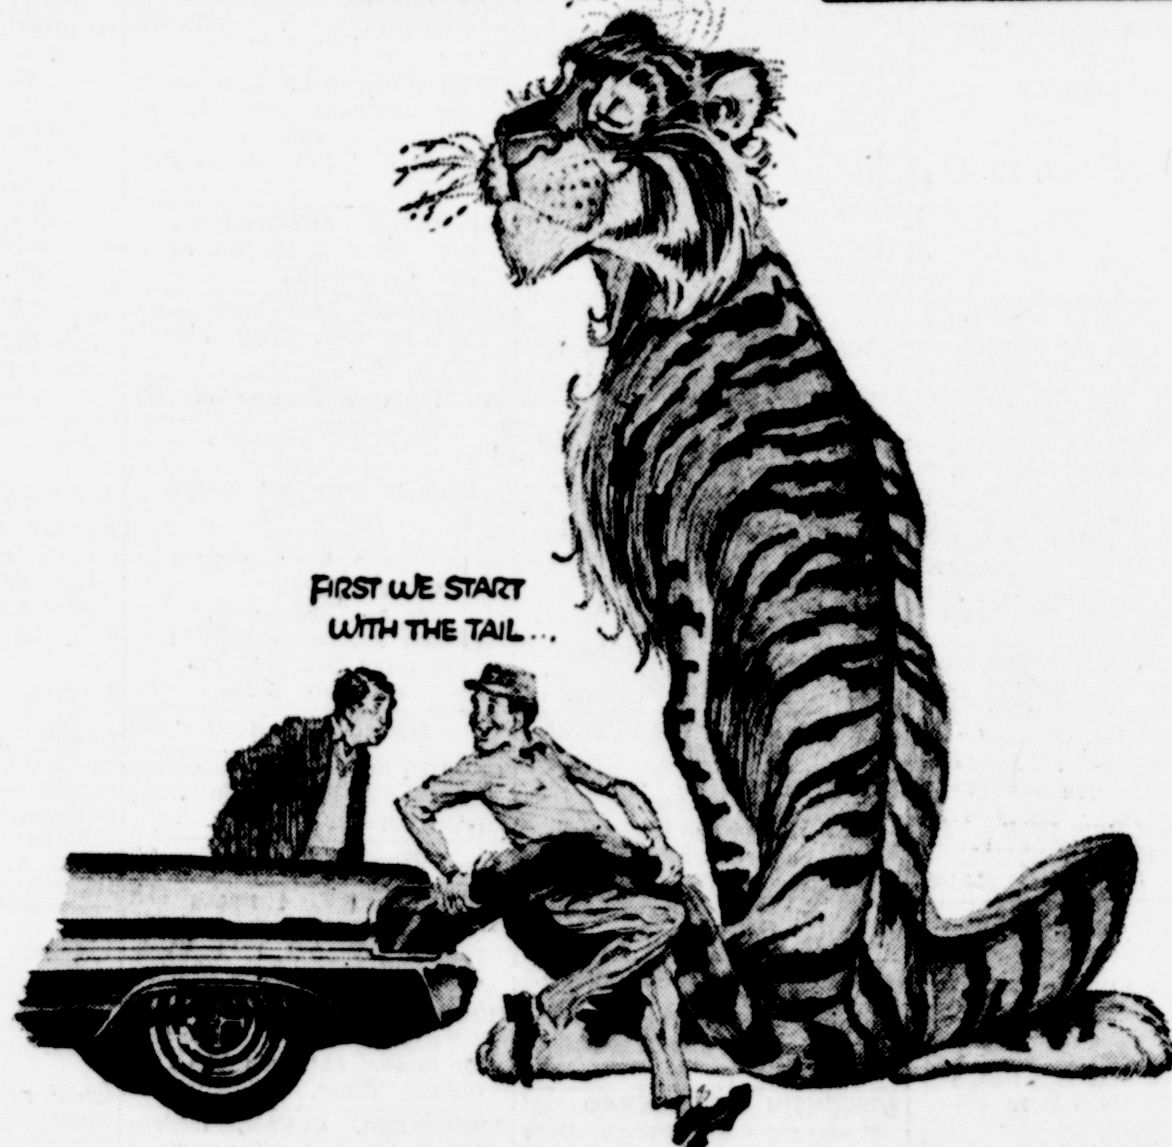

A. T. Walden, judge of the Atlanta Traffic Court, said in effect, in a letter to Negro voters, that a vote for Negro attorney Donald Hollowell would be wasted and merely help to reelect Pye, who has been criticized for handing out stiff sentences to defendants in civil rights cases.

Negroes are urged by Walden to vote for white candidate Paul Webb Jr.

HARRISBURG (AP)—WITF-TV, the city's first educational television station, expects to have its tower and transmitter atop Blue Mountain by November in time to go on the air as Channel 33.

The technical facilities will be located on two tracts of land deeded Wednesday to the South Central Educational Broadcasting Council.

NEED EXERCISE AFTER MONTH SPENT IN BED

By RALPH DIGHTON
Associated Press Science Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Fourteen healthy young men confined to bed for a month in a space-science study got up with one overwhelming desire: exercise.

Feminine companionship was second on the list.

Operation Sacktime, concluded Tuesday at the University of Southern California, also turned up these findings:

1. There are no physical problems likely to arise from long confinement in space cabins or from high gravity stresses during atmospheric re-entry that can't be met with proper exercise.

2. The same exercises would be valuable in rehabilitation of patients hospitalized for long periods by injury or disease.

ONE REAL CRAVING

When Steven Ellikson, 19, ended four weeks of supervised bed rest in a campus residence he admitted he had "one real craving."

"I have got to get up and move around," he told newsmen. "I feel like running until I'm out of breath."

"Well, girls, of course," he said. "I'm going to call my girl first thing and see if she still remembers me."

TYPICAL REACTION

His reaction was typical of the 14 student guinea pigs tested for tolerance of space flight conditions in a project sponsored by the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Dr. John P. Meehan, who headed the study, said the boys experienced some slight dizziness when they first stood up and again after getting out of a simulated astronaut couch attached to the end of a swiftly rotating arm in USC's centrifuge building.

DUPLICATE CONDITIONS

Immediately after getting up, they were required to ride the centrifuge to duplicate conditions spacemen experience in plunging back to earth after long periods in cramped capsules. They were subjected to forces eight times normal gravity.

Dr. Meehan plans to check the men periodically over the next 30 days but first indications are that they suffered no ill effects and were able to do mental and physical tasks on the centrifuge as well as they could before the long stay in bed.

ASKS COURT TO DELAY ACTION ON MISS BLATT

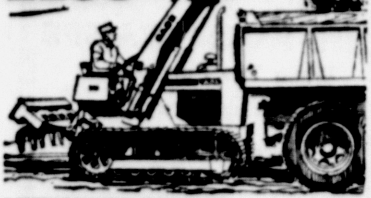

WASHINGTON (AP) — Justice Michael A. Musmanno of the Pennsylvania Supreme Court has asked the U.S. Supreme Court to delay all proceedings for certification of its primary opponent, Genevieve Blatt, as Democratic nominee for the U.S. Senate from Pennsylvania.

Musmanno filed a motion Tuesday with Justice William J. Brennan urging the delay until the U.S. Supreme Court makes a final ruling on the case.

On Aug. 17, Musmanno asked the U.S. Supreme Court to review a Pennsylvania Supreme Court decision that ruled out 5,624 so-called blank line votes cast in Philadelphia in the primary.

GOP TO PUSH FOR MAJORITY IN BOTH HOUSES

HARRISBURG (AP) — Gov. Scranton says the Republican party is mapping plans for a fall campaign to return a GOP majority to both houses of the General Assembly.

"We have every hope that this will be an effort unmatched in the political history of the state," the governor told his weekly news conference Tuesday.

"With the tremendously growing importance of state government we cannot afford in modern Pennsylvania to have legislative candidates run as the poor relations on a ticket."

POLICE MOBILIZATION

In another news conference development, Scranton announced that the state was able to mobilize 1,400 state policemen and National Guardsmen within a few hours' notice to combat riots.

The force was not used in the Negro rioting this past weekend in North Philadelphia, Scranton said, because the city police were "doing a very good job."

In voicing his party's determination to maintain control of the legislature in the Nov. 3 election, Scranton made it clear that the campaign for Senate and House offices would in no way detract from his support for the party's national ticket.

WILL SUPPORT BARRY
The governor said he planned to make a number of appearances.

mary, April 28. That decision enabled Miss Blatt, secretary of internal affairs, to hold a statewide lead of some 400 votes over Musmanno.

Musmanno said that despite the petition for review the Philadelphia County Board of Elections certified the primary vote and will certify the winner on the basis of the vote.

Musmanno noted that the general election is set for Nov. 3. He added the county election board "despite the need for urgent action appears inclined to take advantage of the full 30-day period within which to file an answer (to Musmanno's petition for review) thereby unnecessarily delaying action (by the U.S. Supreme Court). Thus, a stay order as here requested is essential in the interests of justice."

ances inside and outside Pennsylvania in behalf of GOP presidential nominee Barry M. Goldwater and vice presidential candidate William E. Miller.

Scranton rejected suggestions that the special effort for the Republican legislators was aimed at salvaging assembly seats should the national ticket fare badly in Pennsylvania.

The governor also denied the effort indicated he might not work too hard for the national ticket.

"This administration is supporting the Republican ticket from top to bottom."

REGULAR ALERT

Turning to the Negro riots in Philadelphia, Scranton said the 1,400-man state police and National Guard special force was formed at the outset of his administration in 1963. It undergoes periodic practice alerts, he added.

After the rioting broke out, 100 state policemen were sent immediately to the Belmont barracks and another 300 were nearby, the governor told newsmen. In addition, 750 men of the 3rd Battalion, 109th Infantry, at Indiantown Gap, and 250 men of the 104th Cavalry at York were on alert to move on an hour's notice.

PART OF PATTERN

The governor said he personally felt, though he had "no definitive evidence," that the Philadelphia riots and those in other northern cities were not connected with the civil rights movement but were "part of a pattern." Noting that David J. McDonald, president of the United Steel Workers of America, had said that the riots may have been fomented by persons working in political campaigns, Scranton said: "Anybody who has any evidence of the origin of this horrible scene should bring it forward as a civic duty. Without such evidence, such a statement is as despicable as the event itself."

Prime Minister Is A Practical Joker

NEW DELHI (AP) — Prime Minister Lal Bahadur Shastri is a somewhat shy unassuming man but he has a strong sense of humor. Not long ago, when Shastri was a cabinet minister, the doorbell rang at his home. Shastri opened the door.

"Tell the minister the stenographers he ordered have come," a visitor said somewhat curiously. "Wait a moment, please," said Shastri and he disappeared into the house without revealing his identity.

Chuckling at his practical joke, he then slipped behind his desk while a servant ushered in the visitors.

LOCKPORT TO MARK "BILL MILLER" DAY

By ROBERT T. GRAY
LOCKPORT, N.Y. (AP) — Bill Miller, born here 50 years ago in what he calls "an ordinary Irish - Catholic middle-class neighborhood," reached a political pinnacle as he was about to forsake politics.

Some fellow townsmen appear a little dazed at developments as they prepare to give him a send-off Saturday for his campaign as the Republican vice-presidential nominee. But others better acquainted with hard-hitting William Edward Miller profess no particular surprise.

Miller is the type of political candidate the folk of another era would have heralded as a self-made man. He was born in a two-story, cream-colored frame house. His father, in Miller's own words, was a maintenance man "or janitor or whatever you want to call it" for the city.

MOTHER WAS MILLINER

His mother ran a dress and millinery shop not far from the family home. Both parents are dead.

Miller lived in the house in which he was born until he left home to attend Notre Dame University. After Notre Dame, he attended Albany Law School, served in the armed forces and returned to Lockport to practice law and begin a political career.

As a boy, Miller walked half a dozen blocks to St. Patrick's Parochial School. On Sunday, he walked to Mass at the parish church. After St. Patrick's, he walked to Lockport High School in a building now razed.

NEVER HAD CAR

"We never had a car," Miller explains. "We walked almost everywhere."

As a young man, the vice-presidential nominee also walked away from the political party of his parents.

"They were long-time Democrats but shifted the first time I ran for office, for district attorney," Miller recalls.

If Miller had not become a Republican he probably would not have won his first election.

Lockport is known as a Republican city.

MOSTLY GM WORKERS

It grew out of the construction of the Erie Canal, built in the 1850s to link the Hudson River with Lake Ontario. Horse-towed barges carried cargo that played an important role in development of the West.

At Lockport, husky construction crews slashed through a 60-foot escarpment. They created five locks that gave the city its name.

Modern Lockport is a far cry from the days of the rough and tough workmen who built the canal and the early boatmen who plied it. It is a city of gracious homes and dotted with churches and schools. About half of Lockport's work force of 10,000 is employed by the Harrison radiator plant of General Motors.

PLANNED RETIREMENT

On the eve of "Bill Miller Day" and the formal opening here next Saturday of Miller's campaign, Lockport residents have two principal topics of conversation. Along with speculation about Miller's unexpected prominence, they worry about the possibility of general strikes in the automobile industry. A strike would close the radiator works and cripple local economy.

While a congressman, Miller has maintained a summer home in Olcott, 12 miles away on Lake Ontario, and another home in Washington. Before his nomination he had announced plans to retire from politics and resume the full-time practice of law in Lockport.

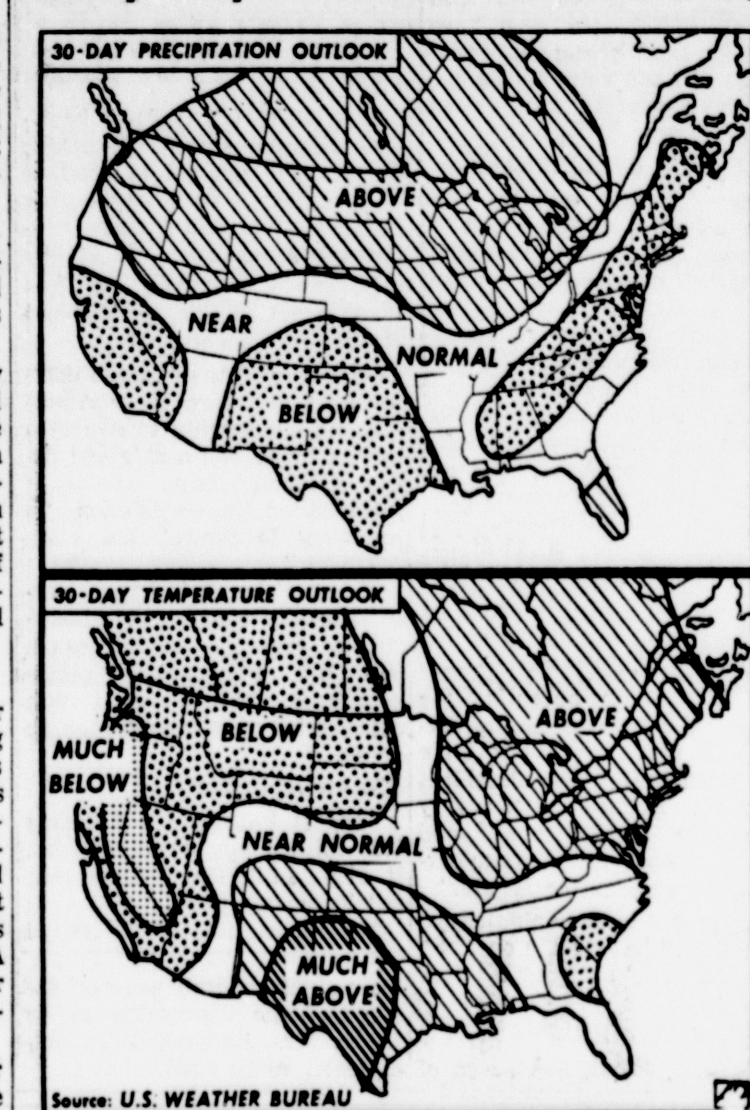

ROMNEY WINS RENOMINATION IN MICHIGAN

By DICK BARNES

DETROIT (AP) — Rep. John Lesinski, D-Mich., the only Northern Democrat who voted against the civil rights bill, was rejected Tuesday in the Michigan primary by voters in a district where expected so-called white backlash did not significantly materialize.

His defeat by Rep. John Dingell in their reapportioned district shared the spotlight with an upset victory by Republican Elly Peterson, first Michigan woman ever to win a major party U.S. Senate nomination. Overshadowed was Republican Gov. George Romney's nearly 8-to-1 renomination margin over a more conservative GOP opponent.

LESINSKI FAILS

Lesinski, a congressman since 1951, could roll up only a narrow margin in the well-to-do portion of the 16th District, then fell steadily behind as returns came from Detroit Negro and white suburban areas.

If Lesinski, running in what was essentially his own previous district, did pick up any backlash, it wasn't nearly enough.

However, Detroit voters approved a "homeowners' rights" ordinance that seemed a reaction against open housing sought by civil rights advocates.

ROLE OF BACKLASH

The role of backlash — reaction against Negro civil rights activity — is viewed as a major question mark in the 1964 presidential campaign.

With 4,851 of the state's 5,209 precincts reporting, the key statewide votes stood: Governor — Romney 544,533, George Higgins 74,808, unopposed Democrat Rep. Neil Staeb-ler 469,401. U.S. Senate — Mrs. Peterson 204,726, James O'Neil 176,621, Edward Meany 142,146, unopposed Democratic incumbent U.S. Sen. Philip Hart 455,779. Dingell led Lesinski 29,799 to 24,805 with 293 of 307 precincts reporting in the district composed of a small portion of Detroit plus southwestern suburbs.

ASTRONAUTS SURVIVE TEST CONFINEMENT

VALLEY FORGE, Pa. (AP) — "I feel sure we could have spent 30 days or more in the can if the mission so warranted."

"I found we could stand the confinement better than I had thought."

Such were the reactions of Air Force Capt. Albert R. Crews, 34, and Richard E. Lawyer, 31, as they emerged from a two-week stay in a simulated space cabin.

The two astronaut candidates, both graduates and now staff members of the Aerospace Research Pilot School at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., emerged

WELK FAN CLUB MAY NUMBER OVER 200,000

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — It was Saturday night at the Hollywood Palladium, where an orderly crowd of nicely dressed dancers were moving to the strains of Lawrence Welk's orchestra — except when the maestro was on the stand. Then they tended to cluster near the stage to watch him wave his baton.

Half-way through the evening, Welk escorted to the microphone an attractive, well-dressed young woman and introduced her informally to the ballroom crowd as Mary Lee Schaefer, national president of the Lawrence Welk Fan Club. There was a round of applause.

Later Mrs. Schaefer described her duties, which sometimes keep her occupied from 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. Primarily, it involves mail. Club members pay 50 cents dues and are entitled to from the capsule Tuesday inside the laboratory building of the General Electric Company's missile and space division here.

SPEND 2 WEEKS

They spent two weeks in a cylindrical cabin about 9 feet across and 7½ feet tall, isolated from the world as though really in outer space.

They ate liquid or freeze-dried space rations and breathed a pressurized artificial air.

As for the food, "I didn't eat the liquid type," Lawyer said, "so I lost some weight. I think the type of food could be changed."

Crews said it "didn't hurt us to lose a couple of pounds. I found we could stand the confinement better than I had thought."

KEY RESULTS

One of the key results of the test, according to Richard A. Passman, manager of GE's manned space operations, was proof that properly-trained astronauts can perform in space better than anybody thought they could.

"The engineers made certain assumptions about man's efficiency," reported Donald E. Mullen, manager of space systems development. "We were amazed by the effectiveness of this crew."

an autographed color picture of their idol and club bulletins that keep them informed of Welk's activities.

1,000 AT PICNIC

Recently the club had its annual picnic in Los Angeles and over 1,000 turned up. Many were from distant points because Welk fans often plan vacation trips to include the outing.

Mrs. Schaefer resolutely refused to estimate the membership in the fan club, but Welk's public relations man said the television star has a Christmas card mailing list of 207,000 names. The club president, the wife of a Los Angeles grocer, estimates that she receives anywhere from 15 to 75 letters a day.

She is experienced in the fan club business, she said, because she ran one several years ago for Frank Sinatra and, more recently, for Robert Linn, an early Welk "champagne lady."

Fan clubs are very handy organizations for performers. One young singer estimated it cost him about $25,000 a year to finance his — he paid, as do the others, for the bulletins, pictures, printing and mailing costs plus personnel to handle the traffic — but found it worthwhile.

Great for lunch: Make sandwiches of white bread, sliced ham and cheddar cheese. Dip the sandwiches in a mixture of beaten egg and milk and fry in butter as you would French toast. Serve with a green salad.

DEFECTION IN VIET NAM IS VIET CONG AIM

By WILLIAM L. RYAN
AP Special Correspondent

A month has gone by since the Gulf of Tonkin crisis began. Despite its threats and protests against the U.S. "paper tiger," Red China has made no overt move to avenge the American bombing of Communist North Viet Nam's territory.

This does not mean the Communists — Chinese and Vietnamese — are idle. It seems to mean that they will rely upon a combination of guerrilla warfare and exploitation of unstable politics to attempt to accomplish their aims in South Viet Nam.

There is a note of foreboding in Saigon about what the Communists might do to capitalize on the country's political turmoil.

RED TARGET

The Red target, according to signs from Communist propaganda, will be the South Vietnamese soldiers and lower-ranking officers.

Instructions to Communist agents in the south are relayed by Hanoi radio in the north and by "Radio Sampan" in the south.

From the language of these broadcasts the Viet Cong evidently is being prepared for a campaign to foment a "defection movement" among the south's soldiery.

APPEALS MADE

Apparently the tools will be cajolery, threats and distrust of non-Asian foreigners. Appeals are to be made to resist "American bosses" as the source of all troubles. Ambushes and acts of terror probably will be stepped up to demoralize the south's soldiers.

There was a lull in Viet Cong activity during the recent rioting. U.S. military men note it often takes the Viet Cong a week or more to react to such disturbances. Word must be filtered down through their ranks.

Red China lacks the wherewithal to confront the United States militarily in a Southeast Asia showdown. But the note of satisfaction in Communist propaganda in the wake of South Viet Nam's political violence indicates a belief there are more ways than one — and fairly non-hazardous ways — to skin a cat.

U.S. Soldiers Face Some Problems With Germans

By PETER REHAK

F R A N K F U R T, Germany (AP) — Pick a young soldier from among the 250,000 U.S. troops stationed in Germany and ask what he thinks of Germans. He may reply that they are rude and loud, drive their cars too fast and try to cheat Americans out of their last penny.

A German civilian's assessment of a GI will tend to be equally uncomplimentary.

Officially this comes under the heading of German-American relations and officially there is no problem. The policies of both countries call for friendly contact between civilians and GIs.

CREATES PROBLEMS

Usually the GI and the German come in contact only with the other's worst side. Add language difficulties and differences in custom and you end up with a problem.

A soldier recently wrote a long letter to an American newspaper complaining about German rudeness and disrespect toward GIs. He said:

"When I have a guest in my house I try to treat him with a certain consideration — as I expect him to treat me — but I'll be damned if it can be all-one-sided."

IN WORLD OF OWN

On the same day, a German newspaper columnist enumerated fruitless attempts by one resident to get introduced to an American military family with whom he could meet socially.

"Why doesn't the guy just walk up to a serviceman on the street and ask him to his home for supper?" asked a GI when shown the article.

"What? Without an introduction?" countered a German.

As a result of the column the German was invited to an American social function.

SELF-SUFFICIENT

Most soldiers and dependents live in a world of their own. When the Army first marched into the war-shattered country, it brought everything it needed for daily survival. U.S. living areas were surrounded by barbed wire and official policy forbade fraternization.

Most of the living quarters are still around. The barbed wire is gone but a self-sufficient American community remains separate from the German one.

Theoretically, it is possible for a GI to remain within this American community during his entire tour of duty here. While the American facilities prevent overcrowding of German areas, they are not conducive to mixing with the population.

How then do they make contacts?

CLIP JOINT PROBLEMS

There's always the young bachelor who seeks amusement off the base. Often he'll head for a tavern where the barmen and

B-girls are ready for him.

Since draftees range in age from 18 to 23, the young man is probably ill-equipped to cope with a smoothly running clip joint. That a German would get clipped here too is a small consolation.

Even worse off is the married soldier who is not eligible to house his family in government quarters. If he brings them overseas, he has to find a place to live in German areas.

SOME EXCEPTIONS

He runs into a seller's market. Furnished places with short-term leases are scarce in Europe. Landlords charge what the traffic will bear.

The accommodation the GI gets probably is inferior to what he had at home but he pays more for it. He finds little consolation in the fact that the situation near Army bases within the United States is similar.

There are exceptions. Some soldiers meet Germans with whom they become good friends. Army officials say the longer a GI stays the more he gets used to the foreign country.

Truck Driver Acts As Mother To Birds

SALINA, Kan. (AP) — Mrs. Robert Roesser of Kipp, Kan., became mother to a nest of baby barn swallows after the nest was found on her truck while she was hauling wheat.

Mrs. Roesser added mash, water and an eyedropper to her equipment and fed the babies while waiting for the truck to be loaded and unloaded.

BOB KENNEDY CAMPAIGNS IN FISH MARKET

By ROBERT GRAY

NEW YORK, (AP)—Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy launched his campaign for U.S. senator at dawn Wednesday with a hand-shaking tour among workers in the historic Fulton Fish Market on the East River.

He was jostled and pushed by a friendly crowd of fishermen. People and trucks mingled in confusion along the sprawling stalls.

Some of the workers stepped in voluntarily as buffers to guard him as he worked his way, smiling and composed, through the throng, the fish crates and the muddy street. He shook every hand within reach.

ADDRESSES CROWD

Kennedy — nominated by the Democratic state convention Tuesday and by the Liberal party state convention Tuesday night, picked up a portable microphone to address the crowd, calling them his "fellow workers" and "fellow fishermen."

Later in the day Kennedy, 38, bids for organized labor support in a speech at the annual convention of the New York state AFL-CIO.

At the Democratic convention, he won by 968 votes to 153 over his only opponent, Rep. Samuel S. Stratton.

SELECTED BY LIBERALS

The Liberal party's state committee, at a closed meeting Tuesday night, selected Kennedy by "an overwhelming majority," a party spokesman said. The party's state conference had recommended Kennedy, but there was backing for both Stratton and the incumbent Republican, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating, 64, of Rochester, who will be Kennedy's chief opponent.

Keating had been rejected as too liberal by the Conservative party, which nominated Henry Paolucci, 43, a history professor at Iona College in New Rochelle.

In his speech accepting the Democratic nomination, Kennedy said that New York State had stood by the late President John F. Kennedy "in every cause he championed" and "now you have asked me to carry on the work in the Senate."

JOHNSON SIGNS HOUSING BILL

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson signed Wednesday the $1,131,800,000 bill to continue and expand various housing programs and said it would benefit all America.

Dozens of members of Congress crowded into the Cabinet Room for the ceremony.

Johnson said there was a commitment to assure every American an opportunity to live in a decent home and a safe and decent neighborhood.

He called the legislation "a milestone to assure that commitment."

The total in the bill was nearly $700 million below the $1,824,000,000 Johnson recommended. The bill omitted his proposals for aid in building satellite communities in metropolitan areas.

URBAN RENEWAL

Largest item in the bill was $725 million for urban renewal. It also authorizes 37,500 new public-housing units.

The measure raises to $30,000 their eight children were on the stage of the convention as he spoke. Mrs. Kennedy is expecting their ninth child.

SESSION OF 1963

A JOINT RESOLUTION
Proposing an amendment to article nine, section four of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, providing for and regulating Commonwealth debt for capital improvements and certain other purposes and prohibiting debts and obligations inconsistent therewith.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby resolves as follows:

Section 1. The following amendment to the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania is proposed in accordance with the provisions of the eighteenth article thereof:

That article nine, section four of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania be amended to read:

Section 4. (a) No debt shall be created by or on behalf of the Commonwealth unless (1) the debt has been authorized by statute, (2) the debt is for capital improvements, separately specified in the statute, (3) the debt has been submitted to the qualified electors of the Commonwealth at a general, municipal, primary or special election and has been approved by a majority vote of those voting on the question, and (4) the debt is evidenced by general obligation bonds of this Commonwealth. Except as herein provided, no debt or other obligation shall hereafter be created by or on behalf of this Commonwealth or by any Commonwealth Authority or other Commonwealth agency the repayment of which will be made, either directly or indirectly, from Commonwealth revenues whether by direct payment or through leases or other contractual obligations. The foregoing provisions do not apply (1) to debts payable solely from the revenue from designated projects and not payable out of any other revenues of the Commonwealth, (2) to the debts created in a manner provided for by law by the issuance and sale of tax anticipation notes payable in the fiscal period in which they are issued from existing revenues, (3) to loans authorized by section eighteen of this article, (4) to leases and contractual obligations entered into in the course of the ordinary conduct of government and not for the purpose of financing capital improvements, by making payments through rentals or otherwise to liquidate debts created by Commonwealth Authorities or other Commonwealth agencies without the approval of the qualified electors, (5) to debts created by any Municipal or local Authority or by the State Public School Building Authority, and (6) to debts created by Commonwealth authorities for capital improvements authorized by the Legislature and approved by the authority prior to the ratification of this amendment. Nor do the foregoing provisions apply to debt created to repel invasion, suppress insurrection or defend the Commonwealth in war or to rehabilitate areas affected by disaster. No debt to supply casual deficiencies of revenue shall be created exceeding one million dollars in the aggregate at any one time.

(b) All bonds issued shall be serial bonds repayable in equal annual installments over a period of time to be provided by law. The first payment of principal shall not be more than two years after the date of the bond.

(c) The General Assembly may authorize, by statute, the issuance of general obligation bonds for the purpose of assuming any debt heretofore incurred by any Commonwealth Authority and which is currently payable from Commonwealth revenues under leases to this Commonwealth. The General Assembly may, from time to time, authorize by law the issuance of refunding bonds to pay any bonded debt of the Commonwealth existing at the time.

Section 2. This amendment shall become effective six months after the date of its approval by the majority of the electors voting thereon.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Not all of America is paved and lined with gas stations, and some of it never will be.

Congress has just put 9.1 million acres of magnificent country into a National Wilderness Preservation System, with the possibility that it will grow to nearly 15 million acres. The land, to be preserved perpetually in a natural state, is in 14 states, mostly in the West.

Like some other conservation legislation of modern times, the Wilderness law came along after it was called for by President Theodore Roosevelt. He told Congress in 1901:

FUTURE PROTECTION

"Some of the forest reserve should afford perpetual protection to the native fauna and flora, safe havens of refuge to our rapidly diminishing wild animals . . . and free camping grounds for the ever increasing numbers of men and women who have learned to find rest, health and recreation in the splendid forests and flower-clad meadows of our mountains."

More than two decades later, in 1924, Congress designated the nation's first area of wilderness preservation, in the Gila national forest of New Mexico.

88 OTHER AREAS

Since then, 88 wilderness-type areas covering nearly 15 million acres in 14 states have been set aside. They are classified as wilderness, wild, primitive and canoe areas.

A move to blanket these areas into a single National Wilderness Preservation System by act of Congress was started by conservationists who feared federal officials might be pressured into declassifying them.

This could be done "at the stroke of a bureaucrat's pen," said one wilderness advocate.

The Wilderness law, approved last month after eight years of study and controversy, states this new law for preservation of the high country:

ENDURING RESOURCE

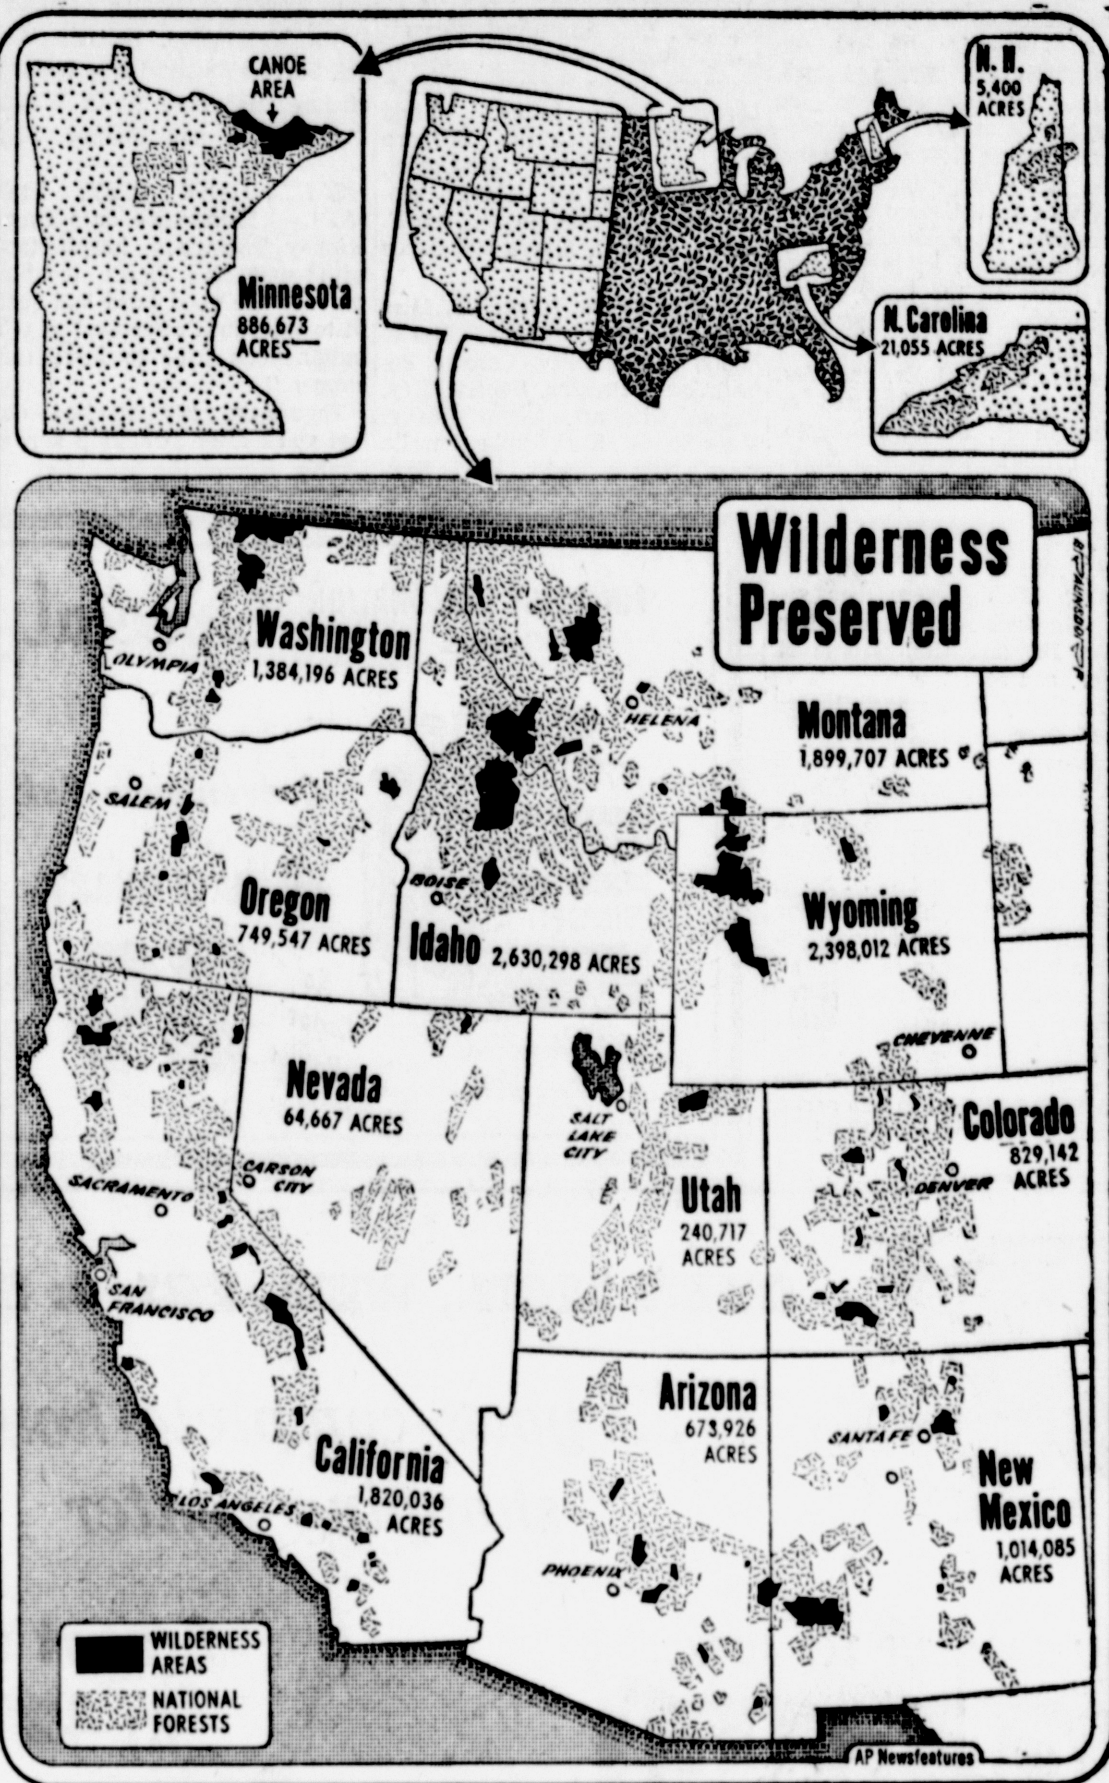

" . . . it is hereby declared to be the policy of the Congress to secure for the American people of present and future generations the benefits of an enduring resource of wilderness . . . to assure that an increasing population, accompanied by expanding settlement and growing mechanization, does not occupy and modify all areas within the United States . . . leaving no lands designated for preservation and protection in their natural condition."

As first offered, wilderness legislation provoked strong and prolonged opposition. Many protests came from persons using the national forests for grazing, mineral and petroleum prospecting, mining and lumbering. They said their rights were in jeopardy and that the economy of the west depended upon the development of resources in the lands.

PERMIT SOME MINING

As finally passed, the law permits some mining and certain other activities deemed compatible with the wilderness concept. It places 9.1 million acres in the system immediately, and provides that all or part of an additional 5.5 million acres presently under administrative designation as primitive areas may be added to the system by act of Congress.

At least one of the areas is unique. This is the Boundary Waters Canoe Area of 886,673 acres in Minnesota, on the Canadian border. It adjoins the Quetico Provincial Park in Canada and creates a vast expanse of wilderness in which the canoeist can travel for weeks without retracing his route. All the areas provide excellent camping, fishing and hunting and unparalleled, unspoiled scenery.

Dirksen Plans Limit On Debate Renewal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen says he plans to move — possibly Friday — to limit a renewal of debate on his proposal to delay court-ordered reapportionment of state legislatures.

The proposal was introduced by Dirksen and Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield as a rider to the $3.3-billion foreign aid authorization bill.

The Senate has put it aside temporarily to debate a Social Security bill. Dirksen says he expects action on that to be completed by Friday. He will then file a petition to invoke the cloture rule to limit debate if he can arrange for a vote on it next Wednesday.

"We can't just go on and on with this talk," Dirksen said.

WORLD WAR II BABIES REACH MARRIAGE AGE

By THOMAS W. POSTER
NEW YORK (AP) — The world's largest marriage license bureau is busier than ever because of the bumper crop of World War II babies now making applications for licenses to get married.

Herman Katz, who heads New York City's Marriage License Bureau, reports that 1964 will be one of the biggest years for licenses issued. And 1964 being a leap year has nothing to do with it, he adds.

"The kids today are getting married younger," Katz said. "The fact of the matter is that the big rush is on because of the World War II babies who have reached the marrying age. And, of course, some of the younger men are getting married to take advantage of the draft deferment for married men."

46 RECORD STANDS

But 1964 will never top the record of 106,447 licenses issued in 1946 when World War II ended and discharged veterans rushed home to the sweethearts who waited for them.

In the first seven months of 1964, the bureau issued 41,665 licenses, an increase of 2,878 over the same period in 1963.

A check of the applications shows that most licenses are being issued to 18-year-old girls and 21-year-old men, the minimum age requirements for marriages without parental consent. Many licenses have been issued to girls under 18 and men under 21 but with parental consent. Legally, licenses can be issued to girls as young as 14 and boys as young as 16 with court sanction.

5-MINUTE CEREMONY

Last year the applications showed that most licenses were issued to applicants from 21 to 23 years of age.

When Katz performs a wedding — he and his six deputies, besides judges and Mayor Robert F. Wagner, are the only non-clergymen authorized to perform weddings in New York City — he takes the couple to the bureau's wedding chapel, small but tastefully decorated, with a pulpit and stained glass window.

"When I take that pulpit I try to give the impression to the couple before me that they're the only two people in the world who are getting married," he

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER
SECRETARY'S SPREAD. A career lovely writes: I have heard that desk jobs cause the hips to spread. It's not so with me. My problem is increased thigh measurements. Trimming advice, please!

The Answer: In the instances of desk sitters reduction in the thigh area takes a three-way course:

1. Check your posture. Try to sit most of the time with your weight centered on the hips, on the sitting bones, and with the feet flat on the floor. The position balances your weight, so that it does not press unduly on either the thigh or back hip. The pressure of weight triggers gains and flabbiness in both areas. You'll see how if you simply cross your legs and come to rest on the end of your spine.
2. Check your chair. To sit in good posture, your chair must fit you. The seat should be a little shorter than the room you take when you sit properly. Other-said. The ceremony takes about five minutes but Katz likes to stretch it out as long as possible.

TO REACH 80,000

Last year the city issued 69,628 licenses and expects to approach 80,000 by December 31. Only five states outside of New York, issued more licenses in 1963. Pennsylvania issued 71,211; Ohio, 71,675; Illinois, 94,352; Texas, 103,937; California, 121,369. New York State issued 130,511.

"Nevada, which issued 73,233, doesn't count," said Katz. "It's a business there, what with all their divorces. Here it's something special."

COAL MINERS GET NEW PACT

WILKES-BARRE, Pa. (AP) — A brand new hard coal contract for northeastern Pennsylvania coal miners was announced here Wednesday by the United Mine Workers of America.

The new anthracite agreement, the first since 1959, affects approximately 25,000 UMW members in District 1, 7 and 9.

The pact was wrapped up late Tuesday following the first sessions of the union's 44th constitutional convention at Miami Beach, Fla.

The UMW said the announcement was made by W. A. Boyle, union president.

Basic changes in the new agreement, which became effective Sept. 1 are:

1. an overall money package of $2 a day.
2. a $25 increase in the existing two-week vacation pay of $160 which brings the total to $185.
3. Three paid holidays at straight time, Memorial Day, Thanksgiving and Christmas. The miners now get eight holidays at no pay. If they work the new holidays, they'll be paid at two and a half time regular rates.
4. A new and what Boyle described as a "best seniority" clause.

Ever add grated lemon rind to a white cake mix?

wise it is impossible to balance your weight. Too, an improperly sized chair presses against the backs of the knees and so creates another problem.

3. Check in with this trimmer and firmer: On back, raise both legs until toes point to ceiling. With quick, short movements, crisscross legs so that one brushes the front and then back of the other. Repeat 10 times, twice daily.

Please Note: The cure for the trouble is also an excellent preventive measure. And so easy!

LEGLINE TRIMMERS

If your individual problem is heavy legs, send for my new leaflet, LEG LINE TRIMMERS, which contains spot reducing exercises that will meet your individual needs, whether for thighs, knees, calves or ankles, or for contouring your entire legline. SALT LAKE CITY, Utah (AP) — Millionaire auto racer Mickey Thompson, hospitalized with suspected heart trouble, wishes "the good Lord had seen fit to wait until after next year's Indianapolis race to have this happen."

Thompson, 24, blacked out last week after streaking across Utah's Bonneville salt flat at 161.74 miles per hour in a Cor-vette. When he blacked out again that night, jet-car speed record holder Craig Breedlove drove him to a hospital.

Thompson, who drives his own race cars and holds nearly 200 land speed records, said: "I wanted to drive in the (Indi-anapolis) 500 more than any-thing, but I guess if it wasn't to be, it just wasn't to be."
